ABOUT THE 2026 CFL COMBINES

The Class of 2026 is set to showcase its skill during Canadian Football League (CFL) Combine Season.

On March 6, players from across Canada gathered at the University of Waterloo's Feridun Hamdullahpur Field House for the CFL Invitational Combine, where eight prospects earned the opportunity to join their top-ranked counterparts at the CFL Combine, presented by Anytime Fitness.

From March 27 to 29, CFL Combine will be held in Edmonton at Commonwealth Fieldhouse and Foote Field. Prospects will first take part in medical testing and measurements before three days of evaluation. Day One will include traditional on- and off-field testing, including the 40-yard dash, the bench press and more. Days Two and Three will be designated for practice sessions involving individual drills and one-on-ones with CFL coaches leading positional groups and installing offences and defences.

Positional coaches at CFL Combine:

- Offensive Coordinator – Dominic Picard (TOR)
- Quarterbacks – Josh Donnelly (SSK)
- Running Backs – Ucambre Williams (CGY)
- Receivers – Kevin Bourgoin (BC)
- Offensive Line – Mike Gibson (OTT)
- Defensive Coordinator – Casey Creehan (HAM)
- Defensive Line – Jake Thomas (WPG)
- Linebackers – Danny Nesbitt (EDM)
- Defensive Backs – Noel Thorpe (MTL)

In 2025, 11 players advanced from the CFL Invitational Combine to the CFL Combine; five were selected in the 2025 CFL Draft:

- Round 3, 23nd overall, to Montreal: Gabriel Lessard | LB | Montreal
- Round 3, 26th overall, to Montreal: Hakeem Harris | REC | Davenport
- Round 5, 43rd overall, to Saskatchewan: Liam Hoskins | LB | Windsor
- Round 6, 48th overall, to Hamilton: Ronan Horrall | DB | UBC
- Round 7, 64th overall, to Toronto: Ethan Pyle | OL | Guelph

2026 CFL COMBINE MEDIA ACCESS

- CFL Communications reserves the right to revoke the media credentials of any individual whose purpose falls outside of providing media coverage.
- Media members are not permitted in rooms designated for medical testing or any type of measurement.
- Prospects will be available for in-person and phone interviews following the completion of all testing/combine practices and during set periods as outlined in the media schedule. Interviews must be coordinated through CFL Communications.
- Media members must remain in designated media areas at Commonwealth Fieldhouse and at Foote Field. Media workspaces will be located along the sides of Commonwealth Fieldhouse on Friday, and in the Foote Field Multi-purpose Room on Saturday and Sunday.
- Media members must be escorted by a CFL Communications representative if moving closer to testing/practice areas.
- Only accredited photographers and videographers with CFL bibs will be permitted on the field.
- Filming restrictions are in place during CFL Combine. Filming requests must be made to CFL Communications in advance.
- Lunch will be provided to media in the Alumni Room at Commonwealth Fieldhouse on Friday. Coffee, refreshments and snacks will be provided throughout the duration of the event.
- Failure to adhere to these guidelines may result in:
    - Credentials being revoked without notice or appeal
    - Immediate removal from areas designated for media coverage
