Eric Canino

Michelin two-star Chef at La Réserve Ramatuelle

A passion for excellent produce and a virtuoso of lightness. Trained by Michelin-starred Chef Michel Guérard, Eric Canino's sensitivity and exacting standards won over Michel Reybier, who entrusted him with La Voile when La Réserve Ramatuelle opened in 2009.

"When I stepped through the doors of La Réserve Ramatuelle, I entered a haven of peace and my cuisine was transformed and pared down. Within this setting between pine trees, sky and sea, I wanted to offer light, elegant, cloud-like cuisine." - Eric Canino

A keen devotee of fine produce, Eric Canino favors short supply chains that involve working alongside the best local producers. His incredible all-vegetable menu has become a staple at the restaurant, as has his signature dish: spice-rubbed red tuna. Faithfully reflecting his profound commitment to healthy, natural cooking, his recipes are simple and straightforward, delicately modernizing the traditional Mediterranean repertoire.
