

LA RÉSERVE RAMATUELLE - HOTEL, SPA AND VILLAS

A new decorative concept at La Réserve Ramatuelle

A private haven of unspoiled serenity, La Réserve Ramatuelle is set to reopen for the summer season on 2 May. This extraordinary place, located just a few minutes from the village of Saint-Tropez, unveils its new decorative concept overseen by Michel Reybier. The founder of La Réserve hotels called on renowned designer Jacques Garcia to transform the interiors of La Réserve Ramatuelle: the splendid lobby, the 27 rooms and suites, as well as the sunny ambience of the bar and restaurant.

The decor pays tribute to the golden age of decorative arts in the 1950s-1960s, when the greatest artists including Cocteau, Picasso, Roger Capron, Robert Picault were shaping modernity in the legendary Vallauris studios. This charm is in turn enhanced by the fine craftsmanship cultivated by a new generation of remarkably talented and sensitive artists.

Everything exudes a sense of convergence, connection and interaction connects and interacts. Poetic, hand-painted frescoes by Delphine Neny – holder of the Meilleur Ouvrier de France title decorative painting – set the tone; while mosaics by Julien Capron, grandson of the famous artist, further consolidate the hotel's resolutely Mediterranean identity. Guests can also admire Florence Bamberger's generously shaped and intensely colorful ceramics adorning both the rooms and the library. A declaration of love to hedonism and to light-hearted happy days, suspended between sky and sea.

In 2024, La Réserve Ramatuelle promises an enchanting season: from the brand-new decor of these warmly welcoming spaces to the new gourmet hotspots and not forgetting the wellness programs entirely redesigned to meet individual needs at Spa Nescens.

ABOUT LA RÉSERVE RAMATUELLE HOTEL, SPA AND VILLAS

A few minutes from the legendary Saint-Tropez village lies a place preserved from the hustle and bustle. La Réserve Ramatuelle overlooks one of the most beautiful bays of the French Riviera, offering a spectacular view of an infinite expanse of sea, a vast private estate nestled in the Provencal garrigue, lulled by the chirping of cicadas. The intimist palace hotel owns 27 rooms and suites. To ensure exceptional privacy, the rental villas offering the hotel services have their own individual swimming pool and private garden.
