

DVBBS

Exploding into popular consciousness five years ago with a Dance Music pedigree and well-earned reputation for head-banging live performances, the Canadian electronic duo DVBBS has rapidly evolved into one of dance music's most innovative, globe-trotting, chart-topping acts. Comprised of Ontario-born brothers Alexandre and Christopher van den Hoef, the group broke into EDM's major league with the smash single "Tsunami." And since then, they've dropped a string of hits—including "La La Land," "Gold Skies" and the No. 1 breakthrough "Angel." As showcased on their six-song December EP Beautiful Disaster, Chris and Alex structure their new music around sunny melodies, catchy vocal tracks and even feel-good guitars, connecting the dots between trap beats, future house and electro, as well as the four-on-the-floor sound and blistering party bangers.
