

MEDIA RELEASE: FOR RELEASE 21.11.17

COUNTDOWN TO NEW YEAR'S EVE WITH THE ABC

This New Year's Eve the ABC, the Sydney Opera House and the City of Sydney will be presenting Countdown Live NYE 2017; a concert celebrating the songs of Countdown performed by many of our most loved artists.

Jimmy Barnes, Phil Jamieson, Marcia Hines, Casey Donovan, Montaigne, plus many more will provide the soundtrack to the nation's New Year's Eve party broadcast via ABC TV, Radio, iView and social as we sing our way up to the midnight fireworks.

In the spirit of celebration, we are looking for the nation's biggest music fans to join us at the Opera House's Northern Broadwalk. So, do yourself a favour and in 25 words or less tell us what being at this once-in-a-lifetime concert, under the NYE fireworks at the Sydney Opera House would mean to you.

Submit your entry via the Countdown 2017 competition page.

For further information and Terms and Conditions, please see below.

ENDS

ABOUT THE ABC'S COUNTDOWN LIVE NYE 2017 COMPETITION:

Tell us in 25 words or less what being at this legendary concert, under the NYE fireworks at the Sydney Opera House would mean to you.

Prize: 450 x double passes to the Classic Countdown Concert on the Sydney Opera House Northern Broadwalk on Sunday 31 December 2017 from 4.00pm.

PLUS - One lucky group of four friends will have the chance to win a trip to Sydney including flights and accommodation to experience the concert and the NYE celebrations.

Entries must be submitted via the Countdown 2017 competition page.

Entrants must acknowledge that they are responsible for their own travel to and accommodation in Sydney to be eligible to enter.

Judges will select the entry they deem to be the most creative. Winners will be announced 13 December.