

Invitation to UK Premiere

A DOCUMENTARY BY CLAIRE JEANTET & FABRICE CATÉRINI

A JOURNEY WITH NOMA SURVIVORS

RESTORING DIGNITY

Watch the trailer

PRODUCED BY INEDIZ
IN COLLABORATION WITH MÉDECINS SANS FRONTIÈRES

The International Society for Neglected Tropical Diseases is delighted to invite you to the UK Premiere of the documentary “Restoring Dignity: a Journey with Noma Survivors”, as part of its fourth annual ISNTD Festival bringing together the creative industries & global health. The screening (52 min.) will be followed by a discussion and Q&A:

Restoring Dignity: a Journey with Noma Survivors

Written, filmed and directed by Claire Jeantet & Fabrice Catérini
Production Inediz in collaboration with Médecins Sans Frontières

Monday March 2nd 2020, 4.00—5.30 pm

Henry Wellcome Lecture Theatre, Wellcome Collection, 183 Euston Road, London NW1 2BE

To attend the UK Premiere of “Restoring Dignity”, please book your place using this link: <https://bit.ly/37iNl1V> (registration is free, but necessary as places are limited, and does not include other sessions at the ISNTD Festival). To attend the entire ISNTD Festival 2020, and for any enquiries please contact info@isntd.org.

About noma

Survivors disfigured by noma, a neglected disease killing 90% of people affected, are going through the long process of facial reconstruction in a unique hospital in Sokoto, Nigeria. While suffering pain and discrimination, Sakina, Amina, Adamu, Aliyu and Mulikat are on a life-changing journey to overcome years of isolation. Noma is a preventable and treatable disease that shouldn't exist anymore. For more information, visit:

noma.msf.org

www.isntd.org