Returning to the hypercar lawn for 2021, Zenvo, the Danish hypercar manufacturer, famous for its hand built and limited edition hypercars will be exhibiting both its TSR-S in the pearlescent Ishvid Perlemor and TS1 GT in the bright and showstopping Lys Grøn. Zenvo Automotive welcomes fans of the brand to visit the team throughout the event, to see both cars up close and marvel at the design and craftsmanship that can be seen on both the exterior and interior of the models.

Angela Hartman, CEO of Zenvo Automotive said: "We are so pleased to be returning to the esteemed Salon Privé Concours d'Elégance this year after a busy UK summer tour. Salon Privé is a timeless event that celebrates both the past and future of automotive craftsmanship, coachbuilding, and design. It's great to be back in 2021 after such a well-executed 2020 event in light of Covid restrictions - we're delighted to be working with Andrew and David Bagley again and the extended team."

Zenvo Automotive is booking private meeting slots for those interested in commercial and customer partnerships as well as having photo opportunities also available for its TSR-S and TS1 GT.

Salon Privé Concours d'Elégance will be held from Wednesday 1 September to Sunday 5 September at Blenheim Palace. Tickets are still available to purchase for the five-day event and can be found here.
