À propos de Special Olympics

Special Olympics est une organisation internationale offrant toute l'année des activités sportives olympiques aux personnes ayant un handicap mental. Par le biais du sport, Special Olympics veut stimuler leur confiance en soi, leur santé et leurs chances dans la vie quotidienne. Ainsi, l'organisation lutte continuellement pour briser les tabous qui reposent encore sur les handicaps mentaux, l'objectif étant de créer une place respectée et valorisée pour toutes les personnes ayant un handicap mental. Special Olympics, fondée aux Etats-Unis en 1968 par Eunice Kennedy Shriver, représente aujourd'hui 4 millions d'athlètes dans 178 pays.

L'asbl Special Olympics Belgium est active depuis 1979. L'organisation est sous le Haut Patronage de Leurs Majestés le Roi et la Reine. Elle est également parrainée par Tia Hellebaut et Kevin De Bruyne et reconnue par le Comité Olympique Interfédéral Belge. Les Jeux Nationaux de Special Olympics Belgium représentent LE rendez-vous sportif de l'année pour plus de 3 400 athlètes ayant un handicap mental. Special Olympics Belgium est également présente sur un plan international, déléguant des participants belges aux Jeux Mondiaux d'Été et d'Hiver.
