

FESTIVAL OF PERFECT SOUND

Sennheiser holiday gift guide

Wedemark, Germany, September 17, 2020 – The year is not yet over, but it is obvious that 2020 has been really different. Yet some things will remain the same – and the magic of the upcoming holiday season is one of them. Whether baking cookies or wrapping presents: the festival of love has also always been the festival of sound. It is the time when we think of our loved ones during our Yuletide stroll, while singing along to our favorite carols or festive pop songs. A time when we decorate the tree listening to jazzy tearjerkers or watching “Love Actually”, “Groundhog Day” and “Home Alone”. So why not delight your family and friends with brilliant audio gear this year? Whether great-sounding true wireless earbuds for those that are always on the go, a noise-cancelling around-ear headphone to really get lost in the music or a 3D audio soundbar for epic movie nights - audio specialist Sennheiser has the perfect gift in store for all the music and movie lovers on your list.
