THE STUDENT HOTEL TARGETS EUROPEAN CITIES FOR EXPANSION

The Student Hotel continues to build its European portfolio with plans to create The Student Hotel co-living, co-working hubs in leading international university locations.

The group is actively looking for opportunities in cities with multiple international higher education institutions, a significant business community populated by young professionals and entrepreneurs, and attractive to leisure travellers.

Sites can be existing buildings or development opportunities which offer easy access to the city centre, campuses and public transport.

As the business model is 400-500 rooms per property as well as co-working space, meeting rooms and common areas open to all, The Student Hotel targets buildings or sites offering 15,000-20,000 square metres.
