*MEDIA ADVISORY***

Children's Museum of Atlanta presents final weeks of 'XOXO: An Exhibit About Love & Forgiveness'

Feature exhibit encouraging children to explore and express emotions closes September 5!

ATLANTA (August 22, 2016) – School is back in session, which means feelings are front and center for the start of a new year! While kids adjust to the hustle and bustle of fresh beginnings, now is the perfect time for families to head to Children's Museum of Atlanta's exploratory exhibition **XOXO: An Exhibit About Love & Forgiveness** before it closes on Monday, September 5! Offering an introspective look at the power of emotion and its impact, children will explore these feelings through 14 different engaging experiences including a response wall, story puzzle, empathy blocks, a reflection table, art making stations and more! Each of these brightly colored spaces is designed to help children understand, appreciate and express how they feel in an interactive, hands-on environment!
