Release of this record or disclosure of its contents to any third party without written consent of the record owner is prohibited.

Printed Official Service Transcript:

If you have received this Official Service Transcript as a printed document, you may verify it's authenticity by testing the security features noted on the document.

Electronic Official Service Transcript:

If receiving electronically, this Official Service Transcript has been digitally signed and therefore contains special characteristics. This document will reveal a digital certificate that has been applied to the Service Transcript, and for optimal results, we recommend that this document is viewed with the latest version of Adobe® Acrobat or Adobe® Reader. This digital certificate will appear in a pop-up screen or status bar on the document, display a blue ribbon, and declare that the document was certified by Parchment, with a valid certificate issued by GlobalSign CA for Adobe®. This document certification can be validated by clicking on the Signature Properties of the document.

The Blue Ribbon Symbol: The blue ribbon is your assurance that the digital certificate is valid, the document is authentic, and the contents of the Official Service Transcript have not been altered.

Invalid: If the Official Service Transcript does not display a valid certification and signature message, reject this Service Transcript immediately. An invalid digital certificate display means either the digital signature is not authentic, or the document has been altered. The digital signature can also be revoked by the Official Service Transcript office if there is cause, and digital signatures can expire. A document with an invalid digital signature display should be rejected.

Author Unknown: Lastly, one other possible message, Author Unknown, can have two possible meanings: The certificate is a self-signed certificate or has been issued by an unknown or untrusted certificate authority and therefore has not been trusted, or the revocation check could not complete. If you receive this message make sure you are properly connected to the internet. If you have a connection and you still cannot validate the digital certificate on-line, reject this document.

The current version of Adobe® Reader is free of charge, and available for immediate download at <http://www.adobe.com>.

05/13/2015	Mission Trip - One-day Description: Building a church for a small community in Mexico. Reflections: This was a quick mission trip. We spent the entire day helping to construct a small church. At the end of the day, we were all exhausted but it felt good to have something to show for our hard work. It wasn't the greatest building ever, but it was something that we were proud of.	7.00	7.00	7.00
07/15/2015	Spokes 4 Folks Description: Repairing bicycles for economically disadvantaged children and adults. Reflections: I didn't know the first thing about repairing bicycles, but after getting a short lesson from one of the leaders, I was quickly able to start working on part of the process of fixing a bike. It was gratifying to see the combined efforts of everyone there. Each of us had a role, and together we repaired several dozen bikes for children in need!	3.00	-	3.00

05/13/2015	Canned Food Drive Description: Donating time to walk surrounding neighborhoods to collect cans. Reflections: I was surprised at the amount of people who were willing to donate cans. Everyone had at least one thing to contribute and after a few hours, we had a wagon full of items. Why don't people donate on their own? It's amazing what can happen when you just ASK people to help.	5.00	5.00	5.00

Reflections: I spent a couple of hours mentoring Raul, who comes from a very poor part of town. He doesn't have a father and he really appreciated spending time with another guy. We went to play basketball and he had a smile on his face the whole time we played. I definitely want to do this type of service more often.	2.00	2.00	2.00
01/02/2015	Humane Society Description: Hosting an adoption for recently born Yorkshire Terriers Reflections: I hosted an adoption even for Yorkshire Terriers and found homes for every single one of them! I learned that some people love animals so much that they make a long-term commitment without thinking twice.	3.00	3.00	3.00
