The Reverend Gerald Britt is one of the finest civic leaders and activists in the city of Dallas. I have worked closely with him on many projects. He has proven to be a compassionate and selfless advocate for quality housing, education, small business development and job creation. He is the type of voice that is needed on the Dallas City Council. He has a twenty year history of serving the people of Dallas with no thought of personal gain.

I urge you to cast your vote on May 9th for Reverend Gerald Britt. As vice-president of CitySquare, he has tirelessly developed socially invaluable programs and has been an advocate for economically disadvantage families in Dallas and throughout the state. As a pastor for more than two decades, he worked to develop housing, create job training programs, and advocate for education reform.

This is critical time in the life our city. We need honest, visionary and proven leadership. Reverend Gerald Britt has demonstrated that he is the type of individual who is worthy of your support, because he will serve as an outstanding member of the Dallas City Council.

Sincerely,

Eddie Bernice Johnson
