

SENNHEISER HOSTS FREE RF WORKSHOP FOR ADELAIDE CUSTOMERS AND AUDIO PROFESSIONALS

WHAT: Sennheiser Australia is hosting a full day workshop in Adelaide to provide customers and audio professionals with a greater understanding of wireless technologies.

Sennheiser's RF Experts will be providing free in-depth radio frequency training throughout the new course this May 2019, which is packed with new content and speakers.

The experts will be exploring the details of the following: antenna selection, placement, splitting, combining and boosting, squelch, pilot tone, commanding, diversity, codecs and latency, multichannel system planning and intermodulation, network integration and management and rules for success.

There will also be a hands-on workshop with Sennheiser's Wireless Systems Manager and Control Cockpit Software, covering planning, monitoring and controlling wireless microphone and IEM systems.

WHERE: The Playford Hotel, 120 North Terrace, Adelaide, 5000

WHEN: Thursday, May 9th 2019

WHO: The workshop is available for customers and audio professionals, held by Sennheiser's RF Experts. Limited places available, please RSVP to pippa.kent@sennheiser.com as soon as possible so that you don't miss out.

Stay tuned for workshops coming soon to other cities around Australia.

About Sennheiser

Sennheiser is shaping the future of audio – a vision built on more than 70 years of innovation culture, which is deeply rooted within the family-owned company. Founded in 1945, Sennheiser is one of the world's leading manufacturers of headphones, microphones and wireless transmission systems.
