ABOUT THE 2019 CFL COMBINES

Canadian Football League (CFL) prospects will vie for an invitation to the CFL Combine presented by New Era starting Monday, March 11 at Commonwealth Stadium's Fieldhouse in Edmonton.

For the seventh consecutive year, the CFL will host a trio of regional combines ahead of the CFL Combine. Following the Western Regional Combine in Edmonton, Montréal will host the Eastern Regional Combine on March 13 at the Scitec Sports Dome in Baie-D'Urfé, and Toronto will host the Ontario Regional Combine on March 21 at the Goldring Centre for High Performance Sport and Varsity Stadium.

The CFL, with input from all teams, will then invite additional players from the regional combines to the national event in Toronto depending on player performance. Last year, 13 players from regional combines were extended an invitation to the CFL Combine, and 12 of those players being selected in the 2018 CFL Draft.

The top players eligible for the upcoming 2019 CFL Draft, as ranked collectively by the teams and the league office, are invited to attend the CFL Combine presented by New Era.

This year, the CFL Combine presented by New Era will take place from March 22-24 at the Goldring Centre for High Performance Sport and Varsity Stadium in Toronto, Ontario. The players will undergo medical examinations, performance, strength and speed tests, on-field football drills and team interviews over the three-day combine in front of general managers, coaches and scouts from all teams.

Regional Combine Players drafted in the 2018 CFL Draft

Last year's regional combines accumulated an additional 13 invites to the CFL Combine, with 12 players of them selected in the 2018 CFL Draft including:

- Marco Dubois, a receiver from Laval University (Eastern Regional), was selected in the second round, 13th overall, by the Ottawa REDBLACKS.
- Eric Mezzalira, a linebacker from McMaster University (Ontario Regional), was selected in the second round, 17th overall, by the Calgary Stampeders.
- Jordan Beaulieu, a defensive back from Western University (Ontario Regional), was selected in the third round, 24th overall, by the Edmonton Eskimos.
- Tanner Green, a running back from Concordia University (Western Regional), was selected in the fourth round, 32nd overall, by the Edmonton Eskimos.
- Arnaud Gendron-Dumouchel, an offensive lineman for University of Montréal (Eastern Regional), was selected in the fourth round, 33rd overall, by the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.
- Justin Buren, a receiver from Simon Fraser University (Western Regional), was selected in the fifth round, 37th overall, by the Hamilton Tiger-Cats.
- Paul Kozachuk, a linebacker from the University of Toronto (Ontario Regional), was selected in the sixth round, 46th overall, by the Montréal Alouettes.
- Khadim Mbaye, a linebacker from the University of Ottawa (Eastern Regional), was selected in the seventh round, 52nd overall, by the Montréal Alouettes.
- Harry McMaster, a receiver from Western University (Ontario Regional), was selected in the seventh round, 53rd overall, by the Edmonton Eskimos.
- Will Watson, a receiver from the University of British Columbia (Western Regional), was selected in the seventh round, 54th overall, by the BC Lions.

Current Team: Thonon-les-Bains Black Panthers (CEFL) | #3

Thonon-les-Bains Black Panthers

2018: Appeared in four games... Caught 22 passes for 450 yards and seven touchdowns.

2017: Did not play.

McGill Redmen

2016: Played in six regular season games... Caught five passes for 75 yards and one touchdown.

Personal

Part of Team France U19 in 2013 and Team France senior in 2016... Was a Vice European Champion with U19 French national team... Named a team captain and rookie of the year in 2018... Scoring his first U SPORTS touchdown is his most fond football memory... Says that current Ottawa REDBLACKS receiver Marco Dubois has inspired him to become a professional football player... Tries to model his game around French receiver Anthony Mahoungou, who played for Purdue University... Would love to own a fitness gym if he wasn't playing football.

2015: Appeared in six games... Caught six passes for 119 yards and one touchdown.

Personal

Scoring his first GFL touchdown is his most fond football memory... Elected to the All Hessian State Team four years in a row (2012-2015)... Says that former CFL quarterback has inspired him to become a professional football player... Tries to model his game around current Arizona Cardinals receiver Larry Fitzgerald... Would probably still play soccer as a goalkeeper if he wasn't playing football.
