ABC congratulates 17th SPA Award winners

The ABC wishes to congratulate its production partners on their much-deserved wins at this year's Screen Producers Australia Awards. A staggering seven ABC programs won their category at the ceremony last week in Melbourne.

Cleverman, ABC's critically acclaimed Indigenous drama series, won Best Drama Production for the second year running, while the ever-popular Please Like Me took out the Comedy Series of the Year award for its final season. Single Documentary of the Year went to The Go-Betweens: Right Here, and Light Entertainment of the Year category was won by Anh's Brush With Fame.

The winners were well represented in the Children's categories, with Nowhere Boys: Two Moons Rising winning Children's Series of the Year, high-energy, intergalactic comedy Winston Steinburger & Sir Dudley Ding Dong winning Animated Series of the Year and Online Series of the Year going to Doodles.

David Anderson, Director of Television, ABC TV says: "The ABC congratulates this stellar line up of Screen Producers Australia Awards winners. These awards recognise the collaboration and creativity within our thriving industry, and the high calibre of content being produced."
