Jo Malone London collaborates with Little Greene

Introducing the perfect partnership. With a passion for creating spaces that indulge the senses, British brands Little Greene and Jo Malone London share a common goal: to evoke just the right mood in every room of a home.

This limited-edition collection heroes five much-loved candles from Jo Malone London's library of home scents that complement different atmospheres. Each one has been brought to life with colours and patterns from Little Greene's extensive array of paints and wallpapers.

They're presented in a strikingly simple glass vessel, pairing Lime Basil & Mandarin, English Pear & Freesia, Myrrh & Tonka, Pomegranate Noir and Lavender & Moonflower with Little Greene's singularly iconic paint colours of Salix, Silent White, Masquerade, Light Peachblossom and Bone China Blue. Further enhancing these collectable candles, a complementary wallpaper design accompanies each one.

A natural collaboration, both brands share a respect for high-quality ingredients and expertly blended formulas and an appreciation of British craftsmanship and heritage.

Fresh & Energising

Lime Basil & Mandarin's tantalising citrus scent is paired with Little Greene's Salix paint colour, a cool, calm and elegant silvery green, and Arts and Crafts style Briar Rose wallpaper, working together to create a fresh & energising atmosphere that brings the calming power of nature into the interior.

Joyful & Inviting

Little Greene's Silent White Deep paint colour complements English Pear & Freesia's luscious scent, helping to create a joyful & inviting mood. With its perfectly balanced neutral tone and inherent warmth, Silent White brings a subtle sense of calm and joy to an interior. Paired with the brand's Great Ormond Street wallpaper, which features pretty birds perched on delicate branches, this combination of colour and scent brings a naturally inviting feel to any space.

Comforting & Relaxing

Warmed by notes of elegant patchouli and guaiacwood, Pomegranate Noir's decadent scent is paired with Little Greene's warm, earthy and alluring powder pink paint colour, Masquerade. This comforting & relaxing combination is complemented by Spring Flowers, an all-over wallpaper featuring stylised flowers and foliage.

Sensual & Warming

Filling the room with its captivating scent, Myrrh & Tonka is combined with Little Greene's Light Peachblossom paint colour and Massingberd Blossom wallpaper to help create a sensual & warming mood. Blended with red oxide and a little bit of blue, Light Peachblossom is a colour that sits somewhere between lilac and a mid-tone pink with a soft undertone, perfect for bringing ambient warmth to any room.

Tranquil & Unwinding

A subtle colour-drenched approach was taken to complement Lavender & Moonflower and the tranquil & unwinding mood it sets. Little Greene's gentle Bone China Blue paint colour and Ditsy Block floral motif wallpaper design combine to enhance the calming scent of English lavender, night-blooming moonflowers and a note of soft white musk.
