

Press release

September 5, 2022

This winter, Little Guest offers you to choose among more than 350 extraordinary hotels, under the sun or in the mountains

Summer ends, children are back to school and it is now time to think about the planning of your winter vacation.

Christmas is celebrated in family, for sure! Then, why not take the opportunity to go for a getaway at this period? Plan your trip now, as you will have a larger choice of hotels!

Whether you are fond of mountainous landscapes or dreaming of a resourcing stay under the sun, Little Guest proposes a wide variety of luxury hotels that are perfectly adapted for family holidays.

With a collection of more than 350 kids-friendly hotels, Little Guest offers a top-end selection for the end of the year and winter holidays with your tribe: mountains, for athletics travellers, or paradisiac islands, for those who prefer warmer temperatures.

Among the most beautiful kids-friendly addresses in the mountains, Little Guest invite you to France, Italy, Switzerland, or Andorra:

Little Guest in a few words

Founded in 2018, Little Guest rapidly established as the best solution for successful family holidays. Its collection now counts with more than 350 hotels around the world, and it offers a personalised service, as well as exclusive advantages, for children and parents.

In only 4 years of existence, Little Guest succeeded in establishing the “kids-friendly” value as a genuine savoir-faire and as a quality label, notably by showing a record growth curve despite the 2 years of pandemic (with a turnover multiplied by 2.7 between 2019 and 2021) and now counts with more than 25% of faithful customers. Here are the proofs that a personalised service and excellence do come to fruition.
