Give the gift of superior audio

Profile USB Mic / Streaming Set

SENNHEISER

The Profile USB Microphone has been designed with ease of use as a priority: simply plug in, and you're ready to stream, podcast and create. All controls – Gain, Mix and Volume – are accessible on the mic itself. It couldn't be easier. The Profile Streaming Set combines the versatile Profile USB condenser microphone with a 3-point, self-locking boom arm and a USB-C cable, offering straightforward and clutter-free presentation for your streams and podcasts.

EW-DP

The Sennheiser EW-DP 835 SET with handheld mic is a camera-mount, fully digital wireless microphone system that employs professional UHF transmission to consistently deliver Sennheiser's pristine, broadcast-quality audio directly to your camera.

MKE 200 Mobile Kit

Upgrading your video blogging audio is just one microphone away – Sennheiser's MKE 200 brings presence to your voice, while features like a built-in windscreen and shock mount keep your recordings sounding cleaner than ever before.

MKE 400 Mobile Kit

If you're searching for that perfect on-camera microphone, look no further! The MKE 400 is a compact, highly directional, on-camera shotgun microphone designed to isolate and enhance the audio for your video and comes with a built-in windscreen and shock mount.

XS Lav USB Mobile Kit

Designed for vloggers, content creators and streamers on the go, the Sennheiser XSW-D Portable Lav Mobile Kit includes everything you need to get high-quality audio into your smartphone videos.

MKE 600

Even the most demanding filming challenges can be handled with an MKE 600 shotgun mic. Thanks to its high directivity, it picks up sounds from the direction in which the camera is pointing and effectively attenuates noise from the sides.

MKH 416

A classic – Sennheiser's MKH 416 moisture-resistant interference tube microphone lets you capture superb broadcast-level audio in demanding conditions. Ideal for your next professional film, TV, or location recording.

AVX-ME 2 SET

Sennheiser's digital AVX-ME 2 SET wireless microphone system offers an easy solution for achieving excellent audio quality in your video recordings. With its self-configuring digital transmission that eliminates the need for time-consuming radio frequency set-up, the AVX is a wireless system you can rely on.
