

HOPE TAKES FLIGHT

Launch a new career. Build in-demand skills. Take your future higher

FAA Part 107 Drone Certification Class

Drones are reshaping how work gets done across industries. Hosanna House invites adults ready to grow their skills and advance their careers to earn the FAA certification required to fly drones commercially.

This focused, hands-on program prepares you for real-world applications and long-term opportunities.

Program Overview

March 2 – May 22, 2026

 Hosanna House – Sherwood Event Center
400 Sherwood Rd, Pittsburgh, PA 15221

 12-week hybrid program (in-person + virtual)
 Tuesday & Thursday at 6:00pm

Who Should Enroll

- ✓ Adults 18 and older
- ✓ Career changers & working professionals
- ✓ Individuals interested in technology, aviation, or hands-on career pathways

No prior drone or aviation experience required

What You'll Gain

- ✓ FAA Part 107 exam preparation
- ✓ Hands-on drone flight and simulator training
- ✓ Industry-relevant skills for high-demand fields
- ✓ Instruction from experienced aviation professionals
- ✓ Pathways to long-term career opportunities

Investment in Your Future

Program Fee: $300

This workforce development program is offered at a reduced rate to support adults seeking new skills and career advancement.

- ✓ Limited to 12 participants
- ✓ Early registration encouraged

 Register online or scan the QR code

Questions or Ready to Get Started?

 James Tigner: 412-342-1304
 jamesst@hosannahouse.org