Guide: Advanced Game Modifier System

Introduction

Our new Lords of the Fallen update v1.5 - Master of Fate introduces the addition of a long-awaited new feature, the Advanced Game Modifier System, which adds extensive replayability by giving players the choice to alter their playthrough and create fully randomized game experiences.

Please be aware that enabling modifiers can alter the game experience and create unexpected encounters. For that we prepare a small recommendations section below.

- Not recommended for players who have not played Lords of the Fallen.
- Partially recommended for players who have played but have not completed Lords of the Fallen.
- Please see the recommendations below.
- Highly recommended for players who have played and completed Lords of the Fallen.
- Please see the recommendations below.

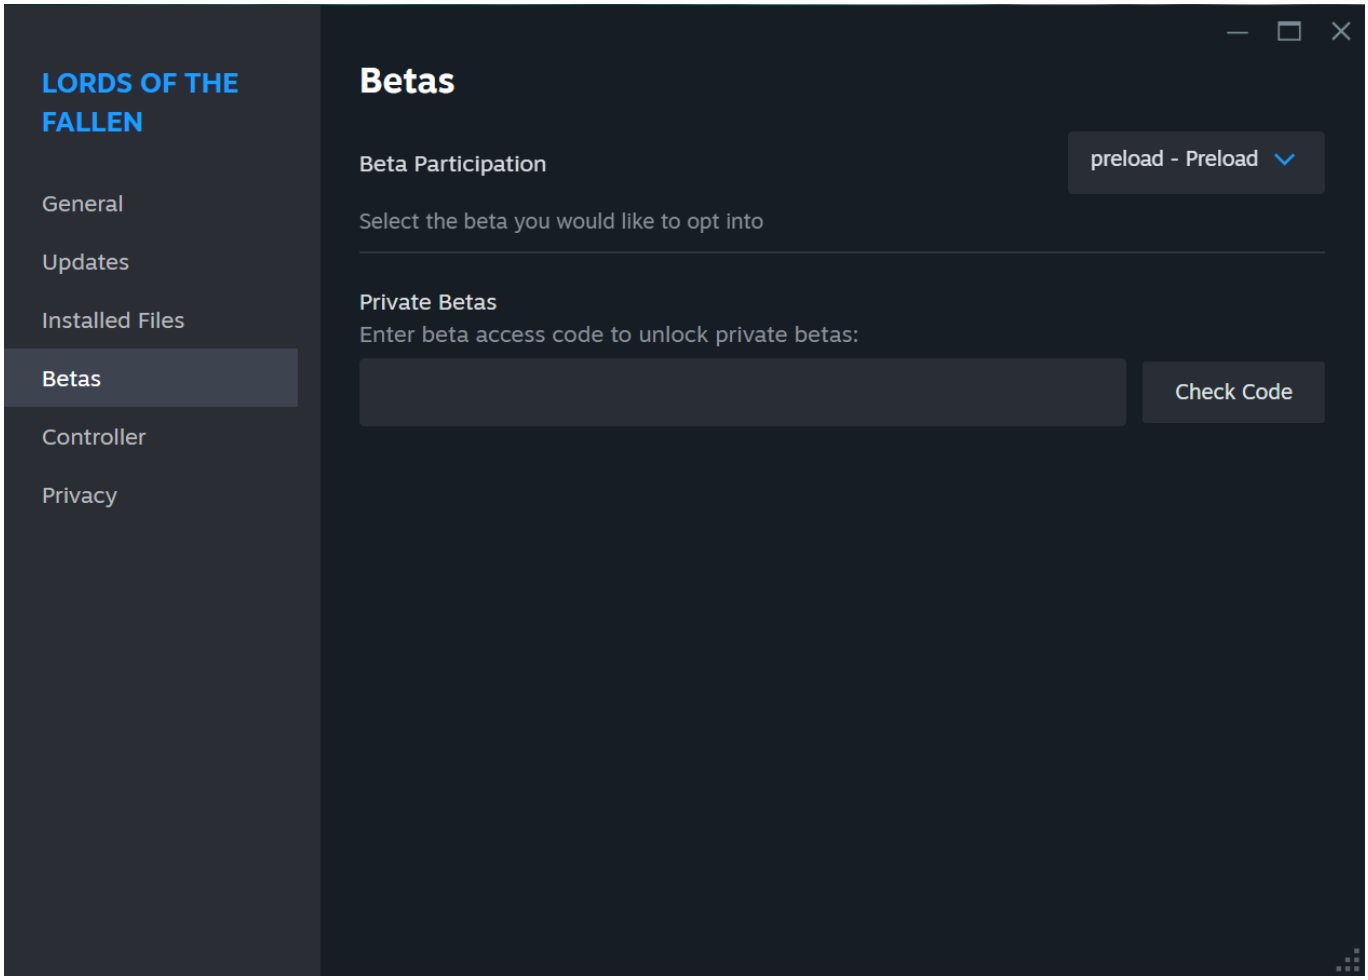

We wish everyone the best of luck in Mournstead!

Steam Beta Access

Please download and install Lords of the Fallen on Steam. Then use the provided beta branch code to get access to the pre-release build by following these steps:

1. Navigate to Lords of the Fallen in your Steam Library
2. Right click on the game
3. Select Properties…
4. Click on Betas
5. In Private Betas enter the following code: Jjs9m5nvsgsdfg75
6. Click on Check Code
7. In the same popup, click on the dropdown box in the top right corner
8. Select “preload”
9. This should change your game to the new branch and start the download of the new update

Note: If it does not automatically start the update, we recommend restarting Steam

Activating Advanced Game Modifiers in-game

1. Start Lords of the Fallen
2. Choose New Game (I)
3. Choose your starting class and customize your character appearance (II)
4. On the final screen of the Character Creator navigate to the right button “Advanced Game Modifiers” (III)
5. Enable Advanced Game Modifiers
6. Choose a character name
7. Press Play
8. The Game Modifiers screen appears (IV)
9. Select any combination you might want

Note: See recommendations below for further guidance
