

Doctors Without Borders (MSF) invites you to attend a digital event to mark 20 years of HIV care in South Africa, a revolution that began in Khayelitsha.

10.50 - Sign in

11.00 – 11.15

Introduction: Mark Heywood, Daily Maverick

11.15 – 12.00

A conversation with some of the first Khayelitsha residents to be initiated on ARVs, with Dr Hermann Reuter and Sr Nompumelelo Mantangana

12.00 – 13.00 - Panel Discussion

- + Justice Edwin Cameron - Former Concourt Judge (2008 - 2019); author of Witness to Aids
- + Dr Fareed Abdullah - South African Medical Research Council; former Deputy Director General and head of the AIDS Programme in the Western Cape government (1994 to 2006)
- + Vuyiseka Dubula-Majola - Africa Centre for HIV/Aids Management, University of Stellenbosch; social justice activist
- + Dr Nathan Ford - World Health Organization; worked with MSF for 14 years supporting HIV programmes
- + Dr Eric Goemaere - HIV/TB Unit Coordinator with the Southern Africa Medical Unit; opened MSF's first HIV treatment programme in South Africa in 2000
- + Dr Sandile Buthelezi - Health Department Director General
- + Dr Liesbet Ohler - Medical coordinator for MSF in Eshowe
- + Dr Sally Shackleton - Frontline AIDS; worked in civil society organisations for over 25 years, always with a focus on the rights and freedoms of marginalised populations, including sex workers.

13.00 - Ambulatory lunch amongst memory stations, Followed by a conclusive address

RSVP: Sean Christie, Msfocb-capetown-comsoff@brussels.msf.org, +27 63 684 2206

EXPLORING LESSONS FROM 20 YEARS OF HIV CARE IN SOUTH AFRICA

When: 28 October

URL: <https://bit.ly/37sGLJW>

 MEDECINS SANS FRONTIERES
DOCTORS WITHOUT BORDERS 20 YEARS OF PATIENT-CENTRED CARE

MSF IN SOUTH AFRICA 2000 – 2020