2016 NATIONAL CFL COMBINE PARTICIPANT LIST ANNOUNCED

More than 120 players to compete in three regional combines across the country

TORONTO – The Canadian Football League (CFL) announced that the League will once again host three regional combines with the participating players having one final opportunity of earning an invitation to the 2016 National CFL Combine presented by adidas, which will take place in Toronto, March 11-13.

The CFL will host regional combines for the fourth consecutive year, and the third-year it will host a trio of them beginning in Edmonton on March 7, followed by one in Montreal on March 9 and the final regional combine in Toronto on March 10.

Last year, 11 players from regional combines were extended an invitation to the National CFL Combine including seven of those players being selected in the 2015 CFL Draft.

12 of the first 13 selections from the 2015 CFL Draft participated in the National CFL Combine last year.

The CFL, with input from all teams, will then invite additional players from the regional combines to the national Combine in Toronto depending on player performance. Each regional combine will invite approximately 40 to 45 football players.

The top players eligible for the upcoming 2016 CFL Draft, as ranked collectively by the teams and the league office, are invited to attend the National CFL Combine presented by adidas.

National CFL Combine:

The National CFL Combine presented by adidas will take place at the Goldring Centre for High Performance Sports and Varsity Centre, both located on the University of Toronto downtown campus. The players will undergo medical examinations, performance, strength and speed tests, on-field football drills and team interviews over the three day combine in front of general managers, coaches and scouts from all teams.

Regional Combine Players drafted in the 2015 CFL Draft:

Last year's regional combines accumulated an additional 11 invites to the National CFL Combine, with seven players selected in the 2015 CFL Draft including:

- Fullback William Langlais from University of Sherbrooke (Montreal Regional Combine) was selected in the third round, 27th overall by the Calgary Stampeders in the 2015 CFL Draft.
- Matt Rea, a fullback from Michigan State (Toronto Regional Combine) was selected in the fourth round, 35th overall by the Saskatchewan Roughriders in the 2015 CFL Draft.
- Wide receiver, Mikhail Davidson from University of Montreal (Montreal Regional Combine) was selected in the fifth round, 40th overall by the Montreal Alouettes in the 2015 CFL Draft.
- Defensive back Dexter Janke who played for the Okanagan Sun (Edmonton Regional Combine) was selected in the fifth round, 44th overall by the Calgary Stampeders in the 2015 CFL Draft.

VARSIY CENTRE & GOLDRING CENTRE FOR HIGH PERFORMANCE SPORTS

Part of the 2016 CFL Combine will once again take place at Varsity Centre. And for the first time in CFL Combine history, participants will also be tested at the Goldring Centre for High Performance Sports. Both venues are located on the University of Toronto campus in downtown Toronto.

Varsity Centre, a state-of-the-art facility at the southeast corner of Bloor Street and Devonshire Place, includes a new 5,000-seat stadium, artificial turf field, air-supported dome for winter use and a 400m eight-lane international class track. It is the new home to the Varsity Blues track and field, football and soccer programs.

The facility sits on the former site of historic Varsity Stadium, one-time home to the Varsity Blues and Toronto Argonauts. The famous bowl was home to 30 Grey Cups and 21 Vanier Cups. It was more than a football venue, however, as it housed world-class soccer (including Manchester United, Pelé and the 1976 Olympic soccer semi-finals), rock 'n' roll legends (including the Doors, Alice Cooper, Bo Diddley and John Lennon) and leading world figures (Mother Teresa and Pierre Elliott Trudeau).

But Varsity Stadium is remembered first and foremost for its football. It was home to the first Grey Cup dynasty in history, as the University of Toronto won the trophy the first three years of its existence. The school won a total of four Grey Cup titles to go along with 26 Yates Cups and two Vanier Cups.

Varsity Stadium was also home to 10 Grey Cup champion Argonauts teams, including one of the greatest dynasties of all-time. Between the years 1945 and 1952, the Boatmen won the title five times.

As host to 30 Grey Cup finals between the years 1911 and 1957, Varsity Stadium was centre stage for many of Canadian football's greatest moments with lead actors like Red Storey, Jackie Parker, Smirle Lawson and Joe Krol.

The CFL legends of tomorrow are set to begin their professional journey on hallowed ground.
