Jo Malone London introduces Lost In Wonder a new collection inspired by the ancient Hanging Gardens

Jo Malone London adds two scents to its fragrance collection: Fig & Lotus Flower and Cypress & Grapevine. Together they capture the fragrant essence of a majestic scene.

A lost moment in time, imagined in the present. Enter a place of fabled beauty lovingly created by a gallant king for his wistful queen under the blazing sun. Faithfully tended, flush with water-splashed flowers and ripe fruits, trailing vines and statuesque trees. A wonder to behold.

The scents

Fig & Lotus Flower, a luscious and graceful light floral Cologne. Lotus flowers skim the surface of a shimmering pond, their delicate water-splashed petals gliding down the shaded walkways. Sweeping over the plump, juicy figs that punctuate the bountiful trees.

Cypress & Grapevine, an aromatic and evergreen Cologne Intense. Foliage and revelry enliven the garden's expansive terraces and noble arches. The fresh scent of statuesque cypress trees is powered with woody notes of trailing grapevines, grounded with depths of amber for a bold and compelling effect.

These two new fragrances can be paired with each other or another from Jo Malone London's collection to create a personalised scent.
