The Doctor Blake Mysteries

New Series

With new characters, twists and surprises, get ready for the next thrilling instalment of 2015's #1 Drama Series, The Doctor Blake Mysteries.

Picking up where series 3 ended, Doctor Lucien Blake (Craig McLachlan) and his housekeeper and confidant Jean Beazley (Nadine Garner) return to Ballarat, ready to finally pursue their romantic feelings towards one another. But their arrival coincides with the attack on someone extremely close to them, creating a lifethreatening situation that will shake them both to their very core. And just as they're trying to recover from this, Blake is shocked by the sudden appearance on his doorstep of a mysterious figure from a life he can barely remember.

Blake throws himself back into his role as Police Surgeon. Lawson's (Joel Tobeck) headstrong niece Rose (Anna McGahan) arrives in Ballarat, ready to stir things up, while Lucien and Jean are torn apart by circumstances neither of them could have possibly foreseen.

In tonight's first episode, Blake finds himself thrown straight into another murder investigation; Ballarat is hosting a stopover in a round-Australia race, and a young mechanic has been found dead underneath another competitor's car. There's pressure from business to wrap up the investigation quickly, but Blake has dealt with that kind of interference before. But when Lawson is run down, Blake finds himself facing a very different case.

Short synopsis

Dr Lucien Blake returns home to find Ballarat hosting a very public stopover in a round - Australia motor race – and a very suspicious death. CAST: Craig McLachlan, Nadine Garner and Anna McGahan

Julia Zemiro's Home Delivery

New Series

In the most diverse series yet, Julia Zemiro travels around Australia to take some of her favourite people down memory lane. Joining her on the road for this 10-part series will be well-known faces from the worlds of comedy, journalism, entertainment, arts and sport. As always the interviews are intimate, candid and Julia's guests reveal parts of their life story that were until now unknown to viewers.

The series launches with Kerry O'Brien. In this revealing episode, Julia takes Kerry back to his childhood in suburban Brisbane. Kerry speaks candidly about his difficult and troubled relationship with the Brothers at St Laurence's College and the long-term effects of a career in journalism.

Australia's international comedy superstar Rebel Wilson is next up, followed by cricketing legend Glenn McGrath. The fourth episode features arguably Australia's greatest intellectual export Geoffrey Robertson. Also opening up to Julia in the series are artist Ben Quilty, TV stalwart Kerri-Anne Kennerley, Logie Award winning actress Miranda Tapsell and comedians Greig Pickhaver (HG Nelson) and Denise Scott. Along the way Julia springs the odd surprise and calls on parents, friends and old school mates to share their own stories about her guests.

New Series

Black Comedy

The wait is over! The groundbreaking comedy series Black Comedy returns to ABC TV. Written by and starring some of the funniest and most talented Indigenous performers in the country, Black Comedy 'goes blackly where no other blackfella has gone before' using an array of talented Indigenous and non-Indigenous performers to explore what it means to be Indigenous in contemporary Australia.

Returning in key roles are Black Comedy stalwarts Aaron Fa'Aoso, Nakkiah Lui, Steven Oliver and Elizabeth Wymarra, and they're ably joined by new core cast members Adam Briggs and Ian Zaro. Series 2 sees the return of many favourite characters including, Townsville's favourite gays, the Tiddas, the Housewives of Narromine, Blakforce and Tiffany, the culturally confused wannabe black, white girl.

New characters include Uncle Doctor, a medico whose methods are more than just a little unconventional, the Thong Mum, a woman whose ability with a boomeranging thong is deadly, and the Beachies, a father and son who spend their days sitting on a log on their Torres Strait Island home staring out to sea and pondering the imponderable. We also meet Ray, a recent parolee and the newest member of the Black Comedy writing team – unfortunately Ray's enthusiasm for his new job doesn't extend to his new colleagues.

Black Comedy is a fast paced, irreverent, entertaining, thought provoking - at times silly, at other times confronting - but always funny look at Australia and Australian culture through the comedic prism of our first people.

Starring alongside our cast are special guests including; Deb Mailman, Matt Day, Leah Purcell, Luke Carroll, Shari Sebbens, Bjorn Stewart, Jack Charles, Elaine Crombie, Bruce R Carter, Brendan Cowell, Lisa Hensley, Anita Hegh, Robbie Magasiva, Harriet Dyer, Andrew McFarlane, Bruce Spence, Chris Haywood, Graham Rouse, Maggie Dence, Costa Georgiadis and Brooke Satchwell.

Short synopsis

Returning for a second series, with new characters along with returning favourites including, Townsville's favourite gays, the Housewives of Narromine, Blakforce & Tiffany, the culturally confused wannabe black, white girl.

Production details

The Weekly With Charlie Pickering

New Series

Last year, The Weekly with Charlie Pickering delivered on its promise to appear weekly, and to be hosted by Charlie Pickering. This year, it promises to put the sense back into the nonsense of the news world, with three comedians who are expert at supplying sense, and eliminating none.

Like all hastily thrown-together sequels, the second season of

The Weekly is bound to be even better than the first. As the news cycle spins ever faster, there'll be no shortage of targets for Charlie, Tom and Kitty to hit with their carefully-aimed comedy scattergun.

They'll spend their Wednesday nights exposing the absurd, revelling in the ridiculous, and throwing shoes at the hypocritical. When they run out of shoes, they will throw socks.

The Weekly with Charlie Pickering: Putting the sense back into the nonsense.

Charlie Pickering, Tom Gleeson & Kitty Flanagan.

River Monsters

New Series

Jeremy Wade, freshwater detective, biologist and extreme angler, is breaking the surface and diving into the lairs of aquatic beasts in this sixth season of RIVER MONSTERS.

All over the Amazon, Jeremy has heard stories of a monster fish that grows so large, it's said to swallow men whole.

Locals call it the lau-lau but after 20 years of searching, from Peru to Brazil and Colombia, the evidence Jeremy needs - a single colossal specimen, stills eludes him.

Now though, he's discovered a secret, untouched location deep in Guyana's remote rainforests where he suspects they may be thriving. Embedding himself in the wild jungle, this time it's different: he's not coming back until he catches it.

Countdown To Life: The Extraordinary Making Of You

From the makers of Human Universe, this fascinating series tells the amazing story of how we are made. With privileged access to the first beats of a human heart, this series uses groundbreaking imagery to capture all the drama of human development.

100 trillion cells. 280 days. One human life. The person you are was decided before you were even born. The way you smile, the environments you thrive in, the colour of your eyes – from the moment you're conceived to the moment you're born, each critical event in the womb can change your life forever.

In episode one, Michael Mosley tells the story of our first eight weeks – the most perilous time in the womb. This is when everything about who we are hangs in the balance – when the layout of our organs is determined, when our heart makes its first beat, and when the length of our lives could be decided. Told through a series of surprising, moving and inspirational human stories, we discover how the journey to becoming a human being is a rollercoaster ride when anything can – and does – happen.

Adam Hills: The Last Leg Down Under

Premiere

The award-winning gang from The Last Leg (Adam Hills, Josh Widdicombe & Alex Brooker) have been sent to the wilderness of Australia for the ultimate extreme road trip. They will be guided through their adventures by Amar Latif, a charming and thrill seeking Scottish travel agent who also happens to be blind, and who decides to give them a difficult and dangerous road trip as far from their expectations as he can.

How will self-professed Neighbours addict Josh, beer and BBQ aficionado Alex, and Sydney native Adam cope as their fantasies of beaches and sunshine are replaced with hunting crocodiles and feral pigs, facing off with hard faced biker gangs and embracing a real life Crocodile Dundee experience?

Plus, as Adam starts to embrace the trip and his Aussie roots, Josh and Alex wonder if a nervous breakdown looms - and "Is it OK?" becomes "Are you OK?" Could this trip be the last straw for The Last Leg comrades?

The boys learn a great deal about the other side of Australia, a nation with a steadfast optimism and a dark underbelly. But the three will find out a few things about each other too, whilst turning each encounter into an exciting, poignant and most of all, richly comedic journey. CAST: Adam Hills, Josh Widdicombe and Alex Brooker.
