Wedemark/Germany, March 20, 2020 – After concerts with Mousse T., Love Fame Tragedy and Logan D., Sennheiser's exclusive streaming concert series #DontStopTheMusic continues with the DJ Madoc from India. Now more than ever, when many artists had to cancel or postpone their live tours and public life as we know it no longer takes place, the music must not stop! Therefore, Sennheiser has initiated the series of exclusive streaming concerts on the company's Instagram account, which will be broadcasted via IGTV (Instagram TV).

Further dates will be announced soon on <http://www.sennheiser.com/anniversary>. Beyond announcements of dates, the website contains numerous music videos with immersive recordings from jazz clubs, electro sets in a living room atmosphere as well as live recordings from recording studios. Just put on your headphones or turn up the speakers and dive into the music.
