Doctor Who: Twice Upon A Time Christmas Special

The magical final chapter of Peter Capaldi's journey as the Twelfth Doctor sees the Time Lord team up with his former self, the first ever Doctor (David Bradley - Harry Potter, Game of Thrones) and a returning Bill Potts (Pearl Mackie), for one last adventure.

Two Doctors stranded in an Arctic snowscape, refusing to face regeneration. Enchanted glass people, stealing their victims from frozen time. And a World War One captain destined to die on the battlefield, but taken from the trenches to play his part in the Doctor's story.

An uplifting new tale about the power of hope in humanity's darkest hours, Twice Upon A Time marks the end of an era. But as the Doctor must face his past to decide his future, his journey is only just beginning...

Twice Upon A Time is written by Steven Moffat, directed by Rachel Talalay, and executive produced by Brian Minchin. The 60 minute special guest stars Mark Gatiss as The Captain and Nikki Amuka-Bird as the voice of the glass woman, and will see Peter Capaldi's Doctor regenerate into the Thirteenth Doctor (Jodie Whittaker).

Following the ABC broadcast, fans can join Rove and his guests for a special regeneration episode of WHOVIANs over on ABC COMEDY.

The Royal Variety Performance 2017

Queen of Comedy, Miranda Hart, is to host The Royal Variety Performance. The award-winning comedy writer and actress will host this year, in the presence of The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, William and Kate. The event will come from the iconic London Palladium Theatre, which is hosting the event for the 41st time.

The show promises to be an unforgettable evening of the best UK and international musical performers, extraordinary theatre and brilliant comedy as well as a number of surprises along the way.

Stars lined up to appear include the legendary Kelsey Grammer who will be performing, with his cast, an exclusive extract from the new musical Big Fish; plus The Killers, Seal, Louis Tomlinson, The Leading Ladies - Beverly Knight, Cassidy Janson and Amber Riley, The Script, and Paloma Faith.

Also taking to the stage are, Britain's Got Talent winner, pianist Tokio Myers; the West End casts of 'Annie' and '42nd Street'; the incredible Circus Abyssinia; Michael Ball and Alfie Boe; the mesmerising Cirque du Soleil plus comedy from Jason Manford and Tom Allen.

Miranda said: "If you don't mind me I am just going to smash a glass ceiling and be the first woman to host the Royal Variety. That felt GOOD! It's thrilling for me because of that, and because I am hugely proud to be part of such an important event in our comedy and variety heritage as the Royal Variety Performance. The young-wannabe-comedian me who watched the show every year, would be just as excited to hear that grown-up me is going to be hosting - only I'll be doing it without the 1970s pudding bowl haircut that made me look like a young male monk!"

The event is staged in aid of the Royal Variety Charity, whose patron is Her Majesty the Queen. The money raised from the show helps those people from the world of entertainment in need of care and assistance.

Short synopsis

Miranda Hart hosts a spectacular night of entertainment from the London Palladium Theatre. The Duke and Duchess of Cambridge, William and Kate, are in attendance with performances by Seal, The Script, The Killers, Kelsey Grammar, Paloma Faith, James Blunt, Jason Manford, Louis Tomlinson & Michael Ball.

Hot on the heels of the UK's E4 broadcast and after a smashing pilot, comedian Roisin Conaty stars as Marcella, an aspiring actress who spiritedly crashes her way through life, assisted by her dubious life-coach, best friends and ever-patient driving instructor. Packed with wry and idiosyncratic observations, GameFace is a witty, tender and resonant comedy about navigating your thirties when you're under-prepared - but somehow always staying afloat. #GameFace

Marcella needs to tell her family about Billy's drug problems - but she can't bear to dent her mother's faith in her golden boy. After contacting her hot-headed father, and finding him to be as unhinged as usual, she reluctantly turns to Simon for help. And, after some soul searching - and typically unhelpful advice from her life-coach - Marcella feels ready to admit her feelings to Jon.

Harry Potter: A History of Magic

It's 20 years since J.K. Rowling's Harry Potter and the Philosopher's Stone first cast its spell on readers across the globe, thanks to the charm, warmth and imagination of its wizarding world. But Rowling's fantastical creation wasn't entirely make-believe...

To mark the 20th anniversary of her book, the award-winning BBC Documentary Unit presents an enchanting new documentary, tracing the real life traditions of magic at the heart of Harry Potter.

Narrated by Imelda Staunton, this is a playful and thrilling adventure through the real life legends, beliefs and folklore that fired JK Rowling's imagination. In the run up to the major exhibition, Harry Potter: A History of Magic, Rowling ventures behind the scenes of the British Library, revealing the real life counterparts to her fantastical world. From shrieking mandrakes and Elizabethan invisibility spells; to the mystery of the ancient oracle bones of the lost Shang dynasty and the real life search for the Philosopher's Stone, it's the start of a journey that takes us to some of the most magical places in the land. There, we'll encounter wonderful characters whose belief in magic has never waned – from the folk at the beguiling Museum of Witchcraft in Boscastle, Cornwall, to a pair of real life wizarding wandmakers who've honed their craft in England's ancient woodland.

Beneath the surface of this rip-roaring adventure is a surprisingly touching story of human frailty, desire and discovery. To JK Rowling magic has always been more than just waving a wand: it's a window into the hopes and fears of humankind - revealing our deep-seated need to control the uncertainty of life. It's a theme embedded at the heart of the Harry Potter books, and Rowling shares never-before seen items from her personal archive - the drawings, doodles and early drafts that led to her own unmistakable vision.

JK Rowling's writing is brought to life with readings from actors from the Harry Potter films: David Thewlis, Evanna Lynch, Warwick Davies, Miriam Margoyles and Mark Williams; while illustrator Jim Kay illuminates Rowling's imaginary world.

Asian Provocateur

In this laugh-packed docu-comedy, stand-up Romesh Ranganathan goes to Sri Lanka to connect with his roots. He doesn't know anything about the country's culture, can't speak a word of Tamil, and is a home-comfort loving loafer. What could possibly go wrong?

Ep 1 - Romesh Ranganathan considers himself British through and through. He grew up in Horsham, doesn't speak a word of Tamil, doesn't know any of his relatives, has no idea about his cultural heritage and has almost zero desire to go to Sri Lanka. Like thousands of other British children of immigrants, he knows very little about the land where his parents came from. As his mother Shanthi says – he's a coconut. Sri Lankan on the outside but British on the inside.
