The Corridors of Hospitals

Down the corridors of hospitals
Nurses they wait for me
Be on time
Don't be late
In their hands I place my fate.

I lie in thrall
Beneath the big machines
Their rays of light are burning into me.
To make this tumour small
So that I don't have to fall.

The doctor he lowers his eyes
He says there's every chance
I might survive.

Oh cancer
You tried to hide
But in the end, you could not lie.
I take these pills to kill you
'Cause I'm not ready yet to die.

Beyond the corridors of hospitals
Birds are flying freely across the sky
I'll take the pain
The storms, the rain
'Cause I'm not ready yet to die.
I'll take the pain
The storms, the rain
'Cause I'm not ready yet to say goodbye.

Storm

When I was diagnosed
My life turned upside down
I could psycho-analyse it
Or I could spin it around
Instead, I found myself
With my head in my hands
Trying my best to understand

Chorus:

There's a storm coming in tonight
So, keep the light burning bright
The clouds are gathering over the sea
This storm is heading straight for me

And who was I to think I'd be spared
Just 'cause I loved life
Just 'cause I cared?
Every time the tears are there on my face
Should I pray to God
To bring me back my faith?

Chorus:

There's a storm coming in tonight
So, keep the light burning bright
The clouds are gathering over the sea
This storm is heading straight for me

If my body's a prison
With no escape
Should I beg the gods to lend me their grace?
I've looked into the eyes of despair
And I tell you my darling
There's nothing there

Chorus:

There's a storm coming in tonight
So, keep the light burning bright
The clouds are gathering over the sea
This storm is heading straight for me

When I wake
When the sky is clear
Will I be fallen and broken
Like that tree over there?
And will all the songbirds have flown away
Or will those songbirds be here to stay?

Chorus:

There's a storm coming in tonight
So, keep the light burning bright
The clouds are gathering over the sea
This storm is heading straight for me

If I feel the spring sunshine on my skin
May I find the courage to begin again
'Cause I'm through with the pain
And I'm through with the crying
And I'm done, I'm truly done
With fear of dying

Chorus:

There's a storm coming in tonight
So, keep the light burning bright
The clouds are gathering over the sea
This storm is heading straight for me

The La La La Song

My body is broken
My heart just a token
I'm so tired of hurting
La La La

My bones they are aching
My hands they are shaking
I feel so forsaken
La La La

Well, this time tomorrow
I'm gonna throw off my sorrow
Like an old coat I borrowed
La La La

'Cos nothing is certain
Only Life's final curtain
God lighten my burden
La La La

This time tomorrow
I'm gonna throw off my sorrow
Like an old coat I borrowed
La La La

Nothing is certain
Only Life's final curtain
God lighten my burden

'Cos this time tomorrow
I'm gonna throw off my sorrow
Like an old coat I borrowed

La La La
La La La
La La La
La La La
La La La
La La La

East Berlin

As I was lying over there
The fear of dying in the air
To live one's life without a care
I dreamt of East Berlin
I dreamt of East Berlin

In my dream the River Spree
How wonderful to be free
I prayed the waters would carry me
Away from East Berlin
Away from East Berlin

Our scars are not dividing lines
We'll raise our glasses to the good old times
We'll ask for better days than these
As we all learn to share our grief
We'll remember East Berlin
We'll remember East Berlin

As we all learn to share our grief
We'll ask for better days than these
Before we quietly take our leave
In memory of East Berlin
In memory of East Berlin
In memory of East Berlin
In memory of East Berlin

East Berlin
East Berlin
East Berlin
East Berlin

Stardust of Unknown Origin

Stardust of unknown origin
Though you seem so far away
Stardust of unknown origin
To you I will return one day

Stardust of unknown origin
See how my path it twists and turns
Stardust of unknown origin
Your light still brightly burns

Stardust of unknown origin
Now I am alone again
Stardust of unknown origin
You were always my twin flame

Stardust of unknown origin
Though I'd lost my way
Stardust of unknown origin
Your love it always stayed

Stardust of unknown origin
You are the truest part of me
Stardust of unknown origin
I see now how this had to be

Stardust of unknown origin
Though you seem so far away
Stardust of unknown origin
To you I will return one day

Stardust of unknown origin
Though you seem so far away
Stardust of unknown origin
To you I will return one day

All The Times I

All the times I
Never let you see me cry
All the times
I left you behind
Without giving you a reason why
And I never even said goodbye

All the times I
Never spoke my mind
Said there was nothing wrong
Said that I was fine
But you and I both know so well
Just like the sunrise
The truth cannot be denied

All the times I
Was so busy chasing the prize
I forgot to recognise
That beauty can still be found
Here beneath the sky
Still the years kept on walking by
Still the years kept on walking by

INSTRUMENTAL

All the times I
Not for want of trying Found myself in hiding
But you know as well as I
Spend too long in the darkness inside
Like the rabbit on the road at night
You'll just be caught by headlights

All the times I
Imagined you were there by my side
As I wandered alone along the shoreline
You with an urgent question in your eyes
When you disappeared
Why should I have been so surprised?
A path from you to me
Had already been revealed
Stardust and moonbeams
On the surface of the sea
Stardust and moonbeams
On the surface of the sea

All the times I
Never let you see me cry

All the times
I left you behind
Without giving you a reason why
And I never even said goodbye
