

Members of the European Parliament Mr Flavio Zanonato and Mr Klaus Buchner, together with the Copernicus services implemented by ECMWF invite you to attend the European State of the Climate

Tuesday 10 April 2018, 12:30 - 14:00
at the European Parliament in Brussels
Room 3G3

Media invitation

Discover how Copernicus, the European Commission's flagship Earth observation programme, is addressing environmental requirements and providing services to European businesses, policy and decision makers to help them respond to climate change challenges.

By attending this unique event you will have an opportunity to find out about the European State of the Climate and the Copernicus climate change and atmosphere monitoring services with their freely accessible environmental data and information.

Media interested in attending, please register before the deadline using the link below. If you are bringing special equipment please contact the ECMWF Copernicus Communications Press and Events Manager: silke.zollinger@ecmwf.int for equipment approval beforehand.

The event will be held in English

Free lunch will be served

Please RSVP no later than 28 March 2018 by registering online via the European State of the Climate event page. For further information please contact copernicus-events@ecmwf.int

#CopernicusESC