

Photo View 2014 premieres at Photo Festival Knokke-Heist

Photo View 2014, those are photo series with spunk! Photos that deviate from the normal standard and in which the photographer has put his heart and soul, and thus his mark. Images that we appreciate because of their quality and technical feats, but also because they focus on individuality. For it is precisely this willfulness that is the strength of Photo View and that always makes the audience pleasantly surprised. The 2014 edition will premiere at Photo Festival Knokke-Heist on March 30 and then travels further through Flanders.

With Photo View Centrum voor Beeldexpressie wants to put photo series with a soul in the spotlight. They say that images speak for themselves, and the pictures of Photo View are no exception. Each series depicts its own unique story. The photographers play with traditional norms. They have a fresh, innovative and daring perspective on things and flirt with the specific character of photography. Tradition does not apply to these photographers: they counter it in a surprising and bold manner. The photographs invite you to think, they evoke emotion and they stick with you!

Selected photographers and jury members The 11 creative photographers of Photo View 2014 are: Hendrik Braet, Paul Bulteel, Katelijne De Brabandere, Els De Nil, Pieter De Raedt, Stefie Dieltjens, Dirk Janssens, Erik Mercelis, Jan Pypers, Wim Reybroeck and Lavinia Wouters.

The vivid photo series are selected with care by skilled professionals in the field of photography:

- Jef Boes, freelance photographer for Humo, Knack, Sanoma and staff photographer at Initials LA and Imagedesk.be
- Yann Bertrand, freelance photographer for national and international media and staff photographer at De Morgen
- Alain Van Haver, lecturer at Narafi and the academy of Turnhout

This jury has a founded perspective on imagery and ensures the quality and expertise of the selection. As independent and competent jury members, they have also given specific feedback to the participants.
