KILIAN PARIS introduces its new summer limited-edition fragrance inspired by Monoi Oil—tiara flowers infused in coconut oil: Sunkissed Goddess — summer in scent, oil on body, sun kissing skin.

Founder Kilian Hennessy reinterpreted this traditional Polynesian elixir with a luxurious halo of warm sunlight and fresh narcotic florals to heighten his multi-sensorial memories of summer.

Monoi Oil—meaning “scented oil” in Tahitian—is also known as an indulgent tanning oil par excellence. Along with Perfumer Calice Becker, Kilian Hennessy recreated its fragrance with an accord of Vanilla, Coconut, and a duo of florals, straight from tropical climes.

Sunkissed Goddess opens with its main, opulent accord of creamy white Tiara Flowers and sensual Ylang-Ylang essence. It leads into the accord’s heart, a full and warm body of Coconut and Vanilla, finishing with notes of Guaiac Wood and Cistus Labdanum—both olfactive signatures of KILIAN PARIS for their resinous, deeply vibrant, and long-lasting appeal.

The ultimate sensory emersion and summer evasion all at once, Sunkissed Goddess joins The Narcotics olfactive family as a limited life. “It’s the scent of summer, the scent of happiness”, Kilian Hennessy.

As summer encapsulated, the flacon is styled like a white and golden ray of light and finished with white engraving on golden hardware.

Whether reality or fantasy, immediate or memory, Sunkissed Goddess is an invitation to live summer’s scent and sensations all year long. Sun-warmed skin drenched in flower-infused coconut oil immediately takes you to the islands.

Available in April 2024 in all point of sales for 250€.
