MICHAEL COPELAND

President and Chief Executive Officer

MICHAEL COPELAND is an experienced executive with an extensive international business development, management and legal background. As President and CEO of the Toronto Argonauts, Michael leads the organization as it transitions its operations under new ownership and moves to its new stadium, BMO Field. Hired by the Kilmer Group and BCE Inc who took over ownership of the football club as of January 1, 2016, Michael has responsibility for the team's strategic direction and its day-to-day operations.

Previously, Michael held the position of President and COO with the Canadian Football League. Originally hired in 2006, he managed several major initiatives for the CFL, including the establishment of a new salary cap system, the completion of a comprehensive new broadcast and digital rights agreement, the launch of replay review, the negotiation of three new collective bargaining agreements with CFL players, the CFL's first-ever drug testing policy, and the return of CFL football to Ottawa.

Prior to joining the CFL, Copeland held strategic business development and marketing roles within Molson Coors Brewing Company. Prior to Molson, Copeland spent three years with The Boston Consulting Group as a Senior Consultant with a focus on corporate strategy development. Copeland also worked with Deloitte Consulting in Sydney, Australia as a Senior Consultant and practiced corporate and commercial law with Blake, Cassels & Graydon in Toronto.

Copeland has a law degree from the University of Western Ontario (1993) and an MBA from Western's Ivey School of Business (1999).

Michael is a recipient of the prestigious Caldwell Partners/ Globe & Mail "Canada's Top 40 Under 40" award.

Michael is married with two daughters and lives in Toronto, Ontario. In his free time, he avidly participates in running and triathlon. He has completed the Ironman USA (Lake Placid) Triathlon, and four marathons.

JIM POPP joined the Toronto Argonauts on February 28, 2017 as the club's 19th General Manager. Entering his first season with the Argos in 2017, Popp brings with him over 25 years of knowledge and Canadian Football League experience.

Prior to joining the Argonauts, Popp spent 20 seasons with the Montreal Alouettes where he served as the Vice President of Football Operations and General Manager and two seasons with the Baltimore Stallions, a member of the CFL's previous American expansion. As a General Manager, Popp has guided his teams to four Grey Cups Championships (1995 with Baltimore, 2002, 2009 and 2010 with Montreal) and has appeared in 10 – the most by a GM in league history.

Additionally, he led the only team in CFL history to ever win 18 games in his only second season as the General Manager of the Baltimore Stallions in 1995, and a 25-9 record in their two year existence. During his time in Montreal, he led the Alouettes to 10 first place finishes, eight East Division Championships and three Grey Cups. The 2011 Sports Media Canada Executive of the Year, currently ranks second all-time wins by a GM (254).

The CFL devotee jump started his career in 1992 as the Saskatchewan Roughriders receivers coach and Director, Player Personnel.

Under his leadership, Popp has identified recruited and developed some of the league's biggest stars and dominant players over the last 20 years, including Anthony Calvillo, Mike Pringle, Robert Drummond, SJ Green, Chip Cox, John Bowman, Ben Cahoon, Bryan Chui and Brandon Whitaker to name a few.

He has also groomed some of the league's best coaches, executives and talent evaluators, including but not limited to: Marcel Desjardins, Jim Barker, Marc Trestman, Marcus Brady, Chris Jones, Danny Maciocia, and Scott Milanovich.

Born in Elkin, North Carolina, Popp played his collegiate career at Michigan State. He and his wife Kimberly currently reside in North Carolina with their six children.

Popp credits much of his success on the field to his family, especially his father Joe, a former NFL and college coach. Jim and his father share the privilege of being members of the Mooresville (NC) High School Hall of Fame, whose football stadium is named in Joe's honour (Coach Joe Popp Stadium).

SPENCER
ZIMMERMAN
Assistant General
Manager

SPENCER ZIMMERMAN enters his second season with the Argonauts in 2017 having received a promotion as the club's Assistant Manager in January.

Zimmerman originally joined the Argonauts Football Operations and Scouting staff in 2016 as the Director of Scout & Pro Development, after spending four seasons with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats in a variety of Football Operations roles.

As the Director of Scouting & Pro Development, his focus was managing the club's negotiation list, player acquisition and personnel evaluation. Working collectively with the Argonauts scouting staff, he assisted in developing and executing scouting strategies in both Canada and the United States, scout NFL camps and NCAA Bowl and All-Star Games, engage in contract negotiations, and coordinate CFL Draft preparation.

Zimmerman jump-started his career in the Canadian Football League as an intern with the Tiger-Cats in 2012. Learning quickly under Canadian Football Hall of Famer Bob O'Billovich, he was appointed to Coordinator of Scouting and Football Operations once Kent Austin took over the club's regime in 2013.

After showing his diligence and keen knowledge of football, Zimmerman was promoted to Pro/ College Scout, a role he served in during the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

A native of London, Ontario, Zimmerman grew up playing grassroots football with the OVFL's London Falcons. Following his days at London's Sir Wilfrid Laurier Secondary School, he went on to continue his playing career in the CIS at the University of Waterloo where he received a double major in Economics and Business. It was at Waterloo that Zimmerman met his long-time mentor, Kani Kauahi, an 11-year NFL veteran and former UW offensive line coach that initially taught him the intricacies of the Canadian game.

VINCE MAGRI is entering his fourth season with the Toronto Argonauts. He originally joined the club as Video Coordinator prior to the 2013 season and for the past two seasons has held the dual role of Canadian Scouting Coordinator & Video Coordinator. In 2016, Magri has been promoted to Director, of Canadian Scouting in which his scouting duties include evaluating, identifying and ranking Canadian talent, tracking and keeping record of Canadian prospects throughout the football season and working closely with Jim Popp, Curtis Rukavina and Spencer Zimmerman to prepare for the CFL Draft.

A former four-year starter at guard and centre for the McMaster Marauders, Magri spent 2011 as Assistant Offensive Line Coach, Football Recruiter and Video Coordinator for the University of Toronto Varsity Blues. In 2012, he returned to McMaster where he was named Offensive Assistant, Recruiter and Video Coordinator for the Marauders team that reached the Vanier Cup championship. Magri grew up in Toronto and played for St. Michael's College School.

Scouting

MARC TRESTMAN
Head Coach

ON FEBRUARY 28, 2017, Marc Trestman was named the 43rd head coach of the Toronto Argonauts Football Club. As one of the brightest and most innovative coaches in the Canadian Football League, he arrives in Toronto with the fourth highest winning percentage by a head coach in league history, two Grey Cup Championships and a 2009 CFL Coach of the Year award to his name. At the age of 61 he enters his 33rd season of coaching at an elite level having previous stints in the NFL and NCAA and also the with Montreal Alouettes, where he was first united with Argos General Manager Jim Popp in 2008.

Working alongside Jim Popp in Montreal for five years, Trestman led the Alouettes to playoff appearances in all five seasons that he served as the club's head coach, amassing a regular season record of 59-31 (.656 winning percentage) and four first place finishes in the East Division with 10+ wins. Under his watch the club made three consecutive Grey Cup appearances which saw him take home back-to-back titles in 2009 and 2010, the first team to accomplish the feat since the Argonauts in 1996 and 1997.

Additionally, Trestman oversaw one of the CFL's most powerful and efficient offences to date during his tenure with the Als, ranking among the best in the CFL in a number of offensive statistical categories, including yards per game, points per game, passing yards per game and fewest sacks allowed.

Following his noteworthy success during his five seasons in Montreal, Marc returned south of the border where he was appointed the head coach of the Chicago Bears. In first year at the helm, the Bears offense set franchise records in net yards (6,109), gross passing yards (4,450), net passing yards (4,281), completion percentage (64.4), passing touchdowns (32), passer rating (96.9) and first downs (344) and finishing second in team history with 445 points.

Parting ways with the Bears after his second season, he took ownership of the Baltimore Ravens offence as the offensive coordinator. Working with NFL stars Joe Flacco, Steve Smith and Justin Forsett, he assisted the Ravens to an average of 359.3 yards per game.

Known for his offensive expertise and nurturing of quarterbacks, Trestman has previously worked with some of the game's best coaches, including Bud Grant, Jon Gruden, Jimmy Johnson, Pete Carroll, Tom Moore, Monte Kiffin, and the Harbaugh brothers to name a few. He has also worked with and honed a number of great players like Rich Gannon, Steve Young, Jake Plummer, Jay Cutler and future Canadian Football Hall of Fame Anthony Calvillo.

Marc was born in Minneapolis, Minnesota where he attended the University of Minnesota to earn a Bachelor's Degree in Political Science prior to earning a Law Degree from the University of Miami Law School. Trestman spent three seasons of his collegiate career at Minnesota, where he was a backup to Tony Dungy, before transferring to Minnesota State-Moorhead to conclude his collegiate career as a senior.

He and his wife, Cindy, currently reside in Raleigh, North Carolina. He has been a member of the Florida BAR since 1983 and is a published author of a book titled PERSEVERANCE: Life Lessons on Leadership and Teamwork. All proceeds from his book benefit the Marc and Cindy Trestman Foundation of Alzheimer's research. Together Marc and Cindy are the parents of two daughters.

ON MARCH 7, 2017, Corey Chamblin was named the Assistant Head Coach, Defensive Coordinator and Defensive Backs Coach of the Toronto Argonauts. Chamblin arrives in Toronto with over 10 years of coaching experience, nine of which have been spent coaching in the CFL as a head coach, defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach.

Chamblin, a two-time Grey Cup Champion, previously served as the head coach of the Saskatchewan Roughriders for four seasons (2012-15). Under his watch, the 2013 CFL Coach of the Year led the Riders to a 29-25 record, including an 11-7 record and the 101st Grey Cup Championship in 2013, and playoff appearances in each of his first three seasons at the helm.

Prior to being appointed to lead the charge in Saskatchewan, Corey spent four seasons as a defensive backs coach with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2007) and Calgary Stampeders (2008-10), and one season as the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (2011). He won his first Grey Cup as a member of the Stampeders coaching staff in 2008. During his nine years in the CFL, Chamblin has coached 14 CFL All-Stars and 26 Divisional All-Stars.

As a player, the Birmingham, Alabama native played four seasons at Tennessee Tech where he earned honourable mention All-OVC under defensive coordinator Mike Smith, as well as current Saskatchewan Roughriders head coach Chris Jones who was on staff. Following his career with the Golden Eagles, he went on to play six seasons professionally in the NFL, spending time with the Jacksonville Jaguars, Baltimore Ravens, Green Bay Packers, Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Denver Broncos and Indianapolis Colts as well as and NFL Europe's Rhein Fire.

STEVE WALSH brings 11 years of professional playing experience and eight years of Florida high school coaching experience to his role as Senior Assistant.

Following six years as the head coach at Cardinal Newman High School in West Palm Beach, Florida, Walsh has spent the past two years as at IMG Academy in Bradenton as the Director of Football.

Walsh led the Miami Hurricanes to their second ever National Championship in 1987 as a sophomore. Following a junior season in which he finished fourth in Heisman Trophy voting, the Consensus All-American declared for the NFL supplemental draft.

Drafted in the first round by the Dallas Cowboys, Walsh would go on to play for six NFL teams in total, leading both the New Orleans Saints and Chicago Bears to the playoffs as a starting quarterback. The Saint Paul, Minnesota, native also made stops with the St. Louis Rams, Tampa Bay Buccaneers and Indianapolis Colts.

MARCUS BRADY

Offensive Coordinator
and Quarterbacks Coach

MARCUS BRADY was renamed the Toronto Argonauts offensive coordinator ahead of the 2017 season, returning to the Double Blue for his fifth season with the club and reuniting him with Marc Trestman for the second time in his coaching career. He was originally named the clubs offensive coordinator on December 3, 2012. In his eight years of coaching, Brady has been part of some of the most prolific offences in the CFL. Prior to joining the Argonauts' staff, Brady served as both the Offensive Coordinator and Receivers Coach for the Montreal Alouettes. He also spent seven seasons as a quarterback in the CFL playing for the Toronto Argonauts, Hamilton Tiger-Cats and the Montreal Alouettes.

Brady arrived in Toronto and accelerated an already potent offence. In 2013, his unit scored more than 500 points on the season, which was the most by an Argonauts team since 1998, put up more than 6,900 yards of total offence, Argos quarterbacks combined for more than 5,000 yards passing, and QB Ricky Ray threw just two interceptions on more than 300 attempts and earned East Division Most Outstanding Player honours for the first time in his career. His offence continued to play well in 2014 and 2015, finishing near the top of the League in most significant categories including touchdowns scored (38 in 2014), passing touchdowns (31 in 2014, 37 in 2015), average yards offence per game (354.3 in 2014), average passing yards per game (280.3 in 2014) and highest completion percentage (70.3% in 2015). In 2016, Brady oversaw an offence that produced the club's first 1,000-yard rusher in Brandon Whitaker since Cory Boyd in 2011. The feat was also the first time that he had a ball carrier eclipse the 1000-yard make since 2011 in Montreal.

Under his watch of the Argos offence, Ricky Ray was honoured as the East Division Most Outstanding Player in back-to-back seasons while receiver Vidal Hazelton was honoured as the East Division Most Outstanding Rookie in 2015. He has also seen 13 players earn East Division honours while four earn CFL honours since joining the club in 2013.

Brady began his term with the Als in 2009 as their Receivers Coach. That season saw the Alouettes win the first of consecutive Grey Cup championships. Brady has been credited in the development of star receivers SJ Green and Jamel Richardson, both of whom are now elite players in the league. In three years as receivers coach, he put six receivers on the East Division All-Star team and two on the CFL All-Star team. In 2012, he led one of the best quarterbacks in CFL history, Anthony Calvillo, to another all-star campaign. In Brady's offence, Calvillo finished second among quarterbacks in total yards with 5,082, despite missing two regular season games, and two members of his receiving corps caught for more than 1,000 yards each.

A former quarterback, Brady started 11 games during his seven year CFL stint, completing 246 of 469 passes for 3,321 yards and 15 touchdown passes. He also carried the ball 122 times for 679 yards and scored six touchdowns. He began his career with the Argonauts in 2002, playing in 23 regular season games and four playoff games, before moving to the Tiger-Cats in 2004. He wrapped up his playing career with the Alouettes in 2006.

In college, he started 43-straight games with the Cal State Northridge Matadors between 1998 and 2001 and finished his career as the school's all-time leader with 1,036 completions, 1,677 attempts, 12,445 yards and 109 touchdowns. He majored in business finance and was born in San Diego, California.

KEVIN EIBEN
Special Teams
Coordinator

KEVIN EIBEN joins the Argonauts coaching staff in 2017 as the Special Teams Coordinator. Eiben rejoins the Double Blue, who he played 11 seasons with as a player, for his first season coaching in the professional ranks.

Eiben started his coaching career at the McMaster University in 2013 as the school's Defensive Coordinator. Under his watch, the Marauders ranked second in average yards allowed (359.9), third in the OUA in points per game (21.9) and interceptions (14), while producing four OUA All-Stars. Following his lone season at McMaster, Eiben accepted the defensive coordinator position at the University of Toronto where he served in the role from 2014 to 2016 and assisted in the continuous development and improvement of the Blues football program.

As a player, he enjoyed a 12-year CFL career, playing 11 seasons with the Toronto Argonauts, who selected him in the fourth round (26th overall) in the 2001 CFL Draft, and one season with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats before he retired in 2013. Eiben broke on to the CFL scene as a dominant special teams player in just his second season leading the Boatmen with 19 special teams tackles and four fumble recoveries. Improving on his special teams efforts in 2003, Eiben notched a career high 33 special teams tackles to lead the CFL. Determined to be a dominant player in the league, Eiben went on to become a notable player in the CFL, amassing 722 defensive tackles, 92 special teams tackles, 10 interceptions and 12 fumbles recoveries to conclude his CFL career. The three-time CFL All-Star and five-time East Division All-Star played an integral role in the Argonauts 2004 Grey Cup Championship and ranks second all-time in CFL history for tackles by a Canadian player (814) behind former teammate and current head coach of the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, Mike O'Shea (1,320).

The Delta, British Columbia native spent his collegiate career at Bucknell University where he starred at linebacker and free safety Starting in 33 of the 43 games he played in, Eiben ensured to leave the Bisons with a number of school records, including sharing the single-game interception record of four. He was named an American Football Coaches Association All-American, a second team AP Division I-AA All-American, a first team All-Patriot League selection, a first team ECAC All-Star, the Patriot League's Scholar-Athlete, and the Bison's MVP during his time at Bucknell. He was inducted into the Bison Hall of Fame in 2012.

Kevin graduated from Bucknell with degree in business management before completing his Masters in Sports Management at Florida State. He was a franchise owner of Sport Specific Training (SST) with a location in Oakville, Ontario from 2009-2014 before taking on a front office position with the Hamilton Tiger-Cats as the Manager of Business Development and Corporate Partnerships for the newly built Tim Hortons Field following his retirement from the game in 2013.

He currently resides in Mississauga, Ontario with his wife Alison, son Carter and two dogs Blade and Rex.

MIKE
ARCHER
Linebackers Coach

MIKE ARCHER comes to the Toronto Argonauts with 40 years of coaching experience in the NCAA and NFL to his name. Archer enters his first season in the CFL coaching ranks in 2017 as the Argonauts Linebackers Coach. Archer recent served his second tenure at the University of Virginia as the Cavaliers Associate Head Coach / Linebackers Coach (2015) and Safeties Coach (2014). Under his watch, Virginia produced the best safety duo in Quin Blanding, named Freshman All-American and ACC Defensive Rookie of the Year, who was ranked second in the ACC and lead the nation's freshmen in tackles (123) and Anthony Harris who was ranked sixth with 108 in 2014. In 2015 Archer saw a first-time starter in Micah Kiser (earn first-team All-ACC honors as a sophomore after finishing the regular season No. 1 in the ACC with 117 tackles.

Prior to his return to Charlottesville, Archer was the defensive coordinator for six seasons at NC State from 2007 to 2012. He served under former NC State head coach Tom O'Brien. Archer and O'Brien previously worked together at Virginia during the 1991 and 1992 seasons before O'Brien became the head coach at Boston College.

At NC State, Archer oversaw a defensive unit that picked off a school record 27 interceptions in 2011. The interception mark led the nation and tied as the second-best effort in ACC history. Archer's 2010 NC State defense held two opponents to negative yardage in rushing and ranked second in the league in rush defense. The Pack was also second in the ACC in sacks. The 2008 Wolfpack defense forced 28 turnovers, 20th in the NCAA. That mark included 17 interceptions which ranked 13th nationally. The 2007 Wolfpack defense ranked 25th nationally in passing efficiency defense.

Prior to his time at NC State, Archer spent seven seasons at Kentucky with a seven-year stint as the linebackers coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers breaking up his tenure with the Wildcats. Archer started at Kentucky in 1993 as the defensive coordinator and linebacker coach. In 1995 he was elevated to assistant head coach, defensive coordinator and linebackers coach. In 1996 he left for the Steelers where he stayed through the 2002 season, helping Pittsburgh to four divisional championships. From 2003-06 Archer returned to Kentucky to be its defensive coordinator.

Kentucky's 2006 defense forced 28 turnovers, as the Wildcats ranked fifth nationally in turnover margin. While with the Steelers, Archer coached a pair of two-time Pro Bowl selections (Jason Gildon, Levon Kirkland) and two other Pro Bowl selections (Joey Porter and Kendall Bell). Kendall Bell was named NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2001. Archer assisted a Steeler defense that led the NFL in rushing defense in 2002.

In 1987, at 34 years of age, Archer became the youngest Division I FBS head coach when he succeeded Bill Arnsparger at LSU. Archer came to LSU as the defensive backs coach in 1984 and was elevated to defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach for the 1985 and 1986 seasons. When Arnsparger left his post to become the athletics director, he handpicked Archer as his successor. In his three seasons as an LSU assistant, the Tigers posted a 26-8-2 mark and played in three bowl games.

Archer's first LSU team finished the season ranked No. 5 in both major polls with a 10-1-1 record, losing only to Alabama and tying Ohio State. It was LSU's first 10-win season in more than 25 years. Archer's Tigers followed up with an 8-4 record and a Southeastern Conference title in 1988. Archer posted a 27-18-1 head coaching record at LSU from 1987-90.

A 1976 graduate of Miami (Fla.), Archer started his coaching career with the Hurricanes in 1976 as a graduate assistant. In 1978 he was elevated to a full-time assistant coach. From 1979-83 Archer served as the defensive backs coach on Howard Schnellenberger's Miami teams, including the 1983 national championship squad.

Archer was a defensive back and punter at Miami from 1973-75. The State College, Pa., native earned a master's of education from Miami in 1978.

Archer is married to the former Barbara Pollak of Kansas City, Mo. The couple has two children. Their son, Jeff, is a 2006 graduate from Kentucky where he played football and baseball. KERRY
LOCKLIN
Defensive Line Coach

KERRY LOCKLIN, the Argonauts Defensive Line Coach, enters his second stint as a coach in the CFL after previously serving as the assistant head coach of the Shreveport Pirates in 1994. Since his initial stop in the CFL, Locklin has coached at almost every level of football, spending time in the NFL, UFL, AFL and NCAA over the last 22 of 29 years that he has coached.

Most recently, Locklin served three seasons (2014-16) as the defensive line coach at New Mexico State, following up stints with the UFL's Sacramento Mountain Lions and the AFL's San Jose SaberCats in 2012, a season at Fresno City College in 2011 and a year with the Orlando Tuskers in 2010.

Locklin was with the N.Y. Jets in the National Football League for the majority of the 2009 season. The Jets ranked first in the NFL in points allowed per game at 14.7, and posted 32 sacks.

The New Mexico State alum began his coaching career at Western New Mexico University in 1988 as a running backs coach. He spent 1989 as a Graduate Assistant at the University of Utah. From 1990-93, Locklin was the running backs coach at Morehead State, where he worked under former Buffalo Bills and New York Jets head coach, Rex Ryan. He then moved to the professional level with the Shreveport Pirates of the Canadian Football League, where he spent 1994 as an assistant head coach.

A native of Las Cruces, N.M., Locklin became the defensive line coach at Eastern Michigan in 1995, a post he held for five seasons for the Eagles. The next nine seasons (2000-08) of his career were spent with the Fresno State Bulldogs, where under his guidance 11 defensive linemen earned All-WAC honors and the Bulldogs appeared in eight bowl games. Two WAC Defensive Players of the Year thrived under Locklin during his tenure, in Garrett McIntyre and Alan Harper.

Locklin spent his collegiate career at the New Mexico State following in the footsteps of his older brother and father, who played 10 seasons in the CFL as a defensive end for the Hamilton Tiger-Cats and Montreal Alouettes. In his time with the the Aggies, he was named All-America honorable mention by both the Associated Press and the United Press International, and two-time All-Missouri Valley Conference selection and two-time academic all-conference honoree.

After his collegiate career, Locklin was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in the sixth round of the 1982 NFL draft. He spent three seasons in the NFL, two with the Rams and one with the Denver Broncos. He concluded his professional career by playing two more years in the United States Football League with the Arizona Wranglers. Locklin received his bachelor's degree from NM State in physical education and social studies in 1982, then earned a master's degree in curriculum and instruction in 1985.

His father, Billy Ray, starred as a defensive end in the league with the Montreal Alouettes and Hamilton Tiger-Cats over 10 seasons.

MITCH
BROWNING
Offensive Line Coach

MITCH BROWNING comes to Toronto as the club's Offensive Line Coach after spending the last three seasons in the same role at Rutgers University. The native of Perrysville, Ohio, has 35 years of coaching experience, including stops at six BCS programs and appearances in 13 previous NCAA games.

Browning joined the Scarlet Knights prior to the 2013 New Era Pinstripe Bowl. In his first full season at Rutgers in 2014, Browning coached an offensive line that helped the team rank second in the Big Ten in red zone offense, third in sacks allowed and sixth in passing offense.

Prior to heading to Rutgers, Browning had a stint as assistant head coach at Davidson University in 2013, following his time as a positional coach at Ashland University (2012) and Akron University (2010-11). Stops as the co-offensive line coach at Tennessee (2009) and offensive coordinator at Syracuse (2008) were preceded by Browning's 10 years as an assistant at the University of Minnesota (1997-2006).

Seven of Browning's 10 years at Minnesota were spent as co-offensive coordinator and offensive coordinator.

In 2005, Minnesota became the first team in Big Ten history to post three consecutive 3,000-yard rushing seasons and the first team in NCAA history to have two 1,000-yard rushers in three consecutive seasons. The Golden Gophers led the Big Ten in rushing offense, total offense and scoring offense, placing second nationally in rushing offense and fifth in total offense.

In 2004, the Golden Gophers led the Big Ten in rushing and scoring. Before Browning arrived in Minnesota, the Gophers ranked 11th in rushing offense and ninth in total offense in the conference. Through continued improvement under his watch, Minnesota finished first in both categories in 2003 and broke virtually every offensive record in school history as the Big Ten's top offense.

Browning was a finalist for the Frank Broyles Award in 2003, which is presented annually to the nation's top assistant coach. In 2003, Browning was co-offensive coordinator at Minnesota as the Golden Gophers set a school and Big Ten record of 6,430 yards of total offense. Minnesota finished the 2003 campaign with 3,789 yards rushing (fourth-best total at the time in Big Ten history) and scored 503 points (sixth-best total at the time in Big Ten history).

Prior to joining the Golden Gophers staff, Browning spent nine years as an assistant (1988-96) at the University of Kansas, where he began his coaching career. He was part of two Kansas teams that finished in the AP Poll's Top 25.

Browning has recruited 20 players during his career that played in the NFL, including first round draft picks Dana Stubblefield and Laurence Maroney.

Browning is a native of Perrysville, Ohio. He is married to the former Jane Grey Baldwin.

TOMMY CONDELL
Receivers Coach

TOMMY CONDELL enters his first season with Toronto Argonauts in 2017 as the club's Receivers Coach. He initially joined the club in January as a Special Advisor to the club.

Prior to the joining the Argonauts staff, CondeLL served as the Offensive Coordinator and Receivers Coach of the Hamilton Tiger-Cats (2013-15). In three seasons with the team, Hamilton's offence ranked at or near the top of the league in a number of significant offensive statistical categories.

In 2015, the Tiger-Cats had the CFL's top ranked passing offence and scored the second-most points on offence (438) despite starting four different quarterbacks due to injury. With a passing efficiency rating of 102.5%, Hamilton's offence accumulated the league's second-most yards (5,148) and touchdowns (tie-32) through the air, while adding the third highest completion percentage (68.0%) with the second-least interceptions (14) of any team.

During his second season with the Tabbies, CondeLL's offence ranked fourth in points (417), first downs (342) and yards per game (330.8), and second in passing yards (4854), passes completed (402) and completion percentage (64.6%). In his first year in Hamilton, CondeLL guided the offence to top-three finishes in several key offensive categories, including ranking second in most first downs (397) and average yards per game (373.1).

Before arriving in Hamilton, CondeLL spent three years at Cornell alongside Hamilton Tiger-Cats head coach Kent Austin as Assistant Head Coach and Wide Receivers Coach. Under CondeLL's watch, Cornell's offence set a school record by scoring at least 24 points in eight consecutive games, while establishing 11 total new school records, including passing yards and points scored. Also during his tenure, Cornell receivers were named to the first and second All-Ivy team in both 2011 and 2012. In 2011, receiver Shane Savage set Big Red single-season records with 65 receptions for 1,080 receiving yards.

Prior to joining Cornell's staff, Condell spent three seasons as Offensive Coordinator and Quarterbacks Coach at Southeastern Louisiana, and served as acting head coach during the final six weeks of the 2008 season. Condell also has significant CFL experience, with stints as Offensive Coordinator with the Saskatchewan Roughriders (2006), Quarterbacks and Receivers Coach with the Ottawa Renegades (2004-05), and Special Teams Coordinator with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (1997).

Throughout his coaching career, Condell has overseen every position on offence, with stints at Louisiana-Monroe, Stephen F. Austin, McNeese State, Hamilton College and Illinois Wesleyan, including a stop with the Albany Firebirds of the Arena Football League.

In addition to his vast coaching experience, he served as a personnel assistant to the NFL Europe draft in 1998. Condell played receiver at Lock Haven University and Cortland State, helping the school capture a pair of ECAC titles in 1992 and 1993.
