Australians of the Year: In Conversation

Presented by Annabel Crabb, featuring Rosie Batty, Jackie French, Drisana Levitzke-Gray & Juliette Wright

Monday, July 13 at 6pm AEST LIVE on ABC News 24

In a special LIVE television event, hosted by Annabel Crabb, the four Australians of the Year come together at Sydney Town Hall to speak their minds.

This year for the first time ever all four Australians of the Year are women.

Led by Australian of the Year Rosie Batty, each of these impressive Australians has an inspiring story to tell and is passionate about human rights issues that drive them.

- Rosie Batty, family violence campaigner Australian of the Year
- Jackie French, author and advocate for children Senior Australian of the Year
- Drisana Levitzke-Gray, advocate for the deaf community Young Australian of the Year
- Juliette Wright, social justice campaigner Australia's Local Hero

ABC News 24 is live-streamed 24 hours a day at: abc.net.au/news24

Follow ABC News 24 on Twitter for live coverage, guest details, programs and breaking news alerts: @ABCNews24

Follow Annabel Crabb: @annabelcrabb

For further information contact:
Chris Chamberlin, Senior Publicist, ABC TV Publicity
02 83333 2154 | 0404 075 749 | chamberlin.chris@abc.net.au
@popculturechris