Town Center at Cobb introduces fun Family Game Night on June 13
Goody bags will be provided to the first 150 Family Club members

ATLANTA (June 12, 2019) — Simon®, a global leader in premier shopping, dining, entertainment and mixed-use destinations, today announced the first-ever Family Game Night at Town Center at Cobb. With school out and parents looking for ways to entertain their kids, this special event will offer families the perfect opportunity to put their electronics away and spend quality time together while playing board games and engaging in additional fun activities. The mall management team will also be collecting Ziploc and white and brown paper bags; juice boxes and 8 oz. waters; and assorted snacks including pretzels, goldfish, crackers, chips, cookies, fruit snacks, fruit cups, pudding, graham crackers, teddy grahams, nutri-grain bars and more to help supply MUST Ministries' Summer Lunch Program.

- WHAT: Family Game Night
Families are encouraged to bring their favorite board games. A limited number of activities; including popular games and coloring sheets will also be supplied and available for check out at the Food Court.
- WHEN: Thursday, June 13 from 5:30-7:30 p.m.
- WHERE: Town Center at Cobb – Food Court
400 Ernest W. Barrett Pkwy
Kennesaw, GA 30144
- HOW: This event is FREE and open to the public. Goody bags will be provided for the first 150 Town Center at Cobb Family Club members. Guests can sign up free for the Family Club at the event.
