

Leave no answer unquestioned.

Trump is president. Fact.
Brexit is happening. Fact.
The news media got it wrong. Fact.
De Morgen included. Also, fact.

The facts don't always follow our optimism.
Sometimes the facts confront us and make us angry and leave us in disbelief.
But emotion won't move the truth forward.
Insight in the facts, does.

Quality journalism respects the facts.
It distinguishes truth from fiction.
It guides readers but won't hold their hands.

That's why De Morgen will always ask the non-evident questions,
now more than ever.
And come to answers that could collide with your truth.
No matter how uncomfortable they may be.

We leave no question unanswered.
And no answer unquestioned.
Because we don't believe in only one answer.

Experience the news with an open and critical mind.
Accept no truth at face value.
Become smarter, not angrier.

That's why De Morgen is more than ever is to go against the stream like a salmon.

Not just to be the opposite.
But to give the opposite a chance.

So, let's all become more
Because it's from the collision of ideas that we move forward.

More insight starts with DeMorgen.

More insight. More salmon.
