

RELEASED: Monday 4 January, 2016

Adrian Swift to depart ABC

ABC TV announces that Adrian Swift, Head of Content and Creative Development, will depart his role at the ABC.

Richard Finlayson, Director of Television, said: "We will be sad to see Adrian go. He's made a significant impact in his relatively short time at ABC TV, with results that will be seen throughout our strong 2016 slate. We wish Adrian all the best for his future."

Adrian Swift said: "It has been a privilege working at the ABC and I would like to thank Richard Finlayson and Mark Scott for the opportunity. I have had the genuine pleasure to lead an immensely talented team and work with some brilliant producers during my time here. 2016 will be a great year on ABC TV."

Adrian will depart the ABC at the end of January.
