

Synthax to Showcase Next Generation Ferrofisch A32 Pro Dante Series and Advanced RME Dante Solutions at the 2022 NAMM Show

The exclusive US- distributor of RME celebrates the return to NAMM by teasing a new product launch

Anaheim, CA, May 23, 2022 — Synthax, US distributor of RME, Ferrofisch, Digigram, Appsys and myMix, has announced it will showcase products from RME and Ferrofisch, [Booth I4704, ACC North Hall] at the 2022 NAMM Show. The latest RME and Ferrofisch solutions, including the A32 Pro Dante and A32 Pro, will be on display at the booth.

The new A32pro Series combines high analog channel-counts with extensive digital I/O and powerful signal routing with DANTE capabilities with the A32 Pro Dante, which provides 64x64 Dante I/O channels on dual Ethernet ports with redundant functionality. The new additions to the A32 Series set a new standard in high-quality with reliable signal conversation and distribution for modern recording studios, live audio playback systems and broadcast audio facilities.

“We are looking forward to showcasing the A32 Pro Series at this year’s NAMM show,” said Derek Badala, Director of Sales for Synthax, Americas. “In every new generation, the technology becomes more dynamic to better future-proof solutions for integrators as well as adapt in various applications according to their needs. The Ferrofisch A32 Pro Dante supports this vision by solving technological boundaries between audio formats and interoperability. New enhancements include user touch screen, 2 independent headphone outputs, SFP MADi implementation, Studio analog outputs, and GPIO triggers. The RemoteFish remote makes it even more powerful in installations where remote control and metering are needed.”

RME, a German manufacturer of premium digital audio solutions, will announce a new product on the first day of the NAMM show. “It will be nice to be back on the show floor where we will also unveil RME’s latest product. I can’t say much more than that. People will have to come see for themselves,” mentioned Mathias von Heydekampf, managing director of Synthax.
