ANGELS' SHARE PARADIS
Available as from mid-February 2025

KILIAN PARIS presents Angels' Share Paradis, its most concentrated perfume yet, a sublime olfactive masterpiece. A Raspberry delight – a technology recreating the fresh and natural taste of the fruit with excellent balance between the green and floral facets – blended with an exquisite Bulgarian Rose oil, capturing the essence of the finest elixir ever crafted.

The celebrated Angels' Share becomes deeper in complexity and higher towards heaven. Founder Kilian Hennessy grew up with the privilege of tasting exquisite elixirs at his family estate. "Angels' Share brings me back to my olfactive childhood memories. My grandfather used to call the mysterious evaporation of aging Eaux de Vie from the Oak barrels: la part des Anges".

Created by Kilian Hennessy in collaboration with perfumer Benoist Lapouza, Angels' Share Paradis delivers the pure bliss of the rarest elixir.

Built on the signature accord of Angels' Share blend of Cognac oil, Tonka Bean, Cinnamon and Oak, Angels' Share Paradis is enhanced by an infusion of Raspberry liquor. The fragrance immediately unfolds rich facets of Bulgarian Rose oil and Cinnamon Bark oil. A woody gourmand dry-down of Sandalwood Album oil and Tonka Bean absolute yield an extremely long-lasting finish on the olfactive palate.

Angels' Share Paradis honors a family legacy, crafted with a unique savoir-faire.

The Angels' Share Paradis flacon features an ultra-luxe, artisanal-crafted natural oakwood cap, making each piece truly unique. True to the Liquors collection, its design evokes a crystal drink tumbler and is infinitely refillable.

Angels' Share Paradis, a taste of heaven in every drop.
