

GARDENING AUSTRALIA. SPRING IS HERE!

Airing Saturday September 2 at 6.30pm on ABC TV and ABC iview

The Gardening Australia team is on the tools all around the country for their annual SPRING episode airing 6.30pm on Saturday, September 2, repeated on Sunday 3rd at 1pm, and anytime on ABC iview.

Leading the team's spring bonanza, Costa Georgiadis explores the stunning displays in The Royal Botanic Garden, Sydney and discovers the power of the flower.

Jane Edmanson explores a collector's garden full of unusual, architectural beauties and gets some expert tips for growing them at home.

Sophie Thomson will take viewers to visit a true spring garden, bursting at the seams with colourful blossom and bulbs.

Tino Carnevale will reveal his secret to planting a successful summer crop including Australia's favourite, the tomato!

Plus all our presenters reveal their must-do spring jobs in their own gardens to celebrate spring and Father's Day. Whether you are an old hand or starting your very first patch, Gardening Australia has the inspiration and information you need to get growing!

Follow Gardening Australia online <http://www.abc.net.au/gardening/> or on Facebook and Instagram via @gardeningaustralia

For further information or to arrange an interview with Costa Georgiadis, contact:

Sarah Smith, TV Publicist, ABC TV Marketing 02 8333 3846 | smith.sarah@abc.net.au