Lady Mini Powder

Lady Mini Powder - the colour of life

Your time is precious - keep track of it with a beautiful watch.

Or in this case, an entire brand new collection of spectacular, feminine, cute-as-a-button watches from Switzerland's boutique watchmaker, Claude Bernard.

The Lady Mini Powder models are a dainty 24mm in diameter - dazzling creations that perfectly embody joie de vivre, with an ultra-accurate quartz movement beating at their heart.

Lady Mini Powder

Quartz and mechanical Swiss-made movements | Scratch-resistant and anti-reflective sapphire crystal
Genuine structured leather straps | Diameter 24mm, 21 x 30.5mm, 21 x 24.5mm | Water resistance 30 meters / 3 ATM water resistance

With a range of case designs (circular, oblong and tonneau), the Lady Mini Powder collection's golden hues reflect the timeless elegance that graces all of Claude Bernard's range of expertly crafted watches.

That craftsmanship is evident in the tiny details, from the sweeping sun-dial pattern at the heart of the dial, or the sparkling stones set around the bezel that seem to make the watch "dance" in the light.

The subtle sizing, too, makes a Lady Mini watch the ultimate, affordable fashion accessory, whatever the setting - whether you're out for the evening for a romantic date or catching up with girlfriends for a leisurely lunch.

The Lady Mini collection are watches, yes, but also a statement from the Les Genevez-based watchmaker that life is indeed a beautiful journey.

A journey you can truly celebrate through a memorable timepiece from the Lady Mini family.
