

8 December 2015
L15/10E

Opening of the “Italian Car Passion” exhibition by Mr Stephan Winkelmann, President and CEO of Automobili Lamborghini

In the presence of Mr Guy Verhofstadt, former Belgian Prime Minister, and Mr Vincenzo Grassi, the Italian Ambassador to the Kingdom of Belgium, Stephan Winkelmann, President and CEO of Automobili Lamborghini, officially opened the exhibition “Italian Car Passion - La bella macchina” (from 3 December 2015 until 31 January 2016) at the Autoworld Museum Brussels, where 60 exceptional Italian classics and contemporary supercars are on display.

During his speech, Mr Stephan Winkelmann highlighted the extraordinary story of Automobili Lamborghini and congratulated D'leteren Auto and Lamborghini Brussels for their partnership at this superb exhibition, where you will discover Lamborghinis such as the Miura SV, the 350 GT, the Countach, the Murciélago, the Gallardo and the last born in the family, the Aventador SV and the Huracán. The exceptional and impressive Veneno Roadster is on display amongst other supercars.