

RSVP: Urban Putt hard hat tour

Peek behind the curtain to see the magic of Urban Putt

Join Chief Greenskeeper Steve Fox for an sneak peek at the fantastical, steampunk-meets-Jules-Verne-inspired, custom-designed-and-crafted mini golf holes the Urban Putt team is building! You'll see indoor mountains, a submarine, spaceship, and more amazing and inspired mini golf holes.

Plus, you'll be treated to coffee, juice, and light bites. Please let us know you're coming so we can have refreshments for everyone!

What: Urban Putt Hard Hat Tour

When: Saturday, August 3rd. 10-11am

Where: 1201 18th St, Denver, CO 80202 (The former LoDo Old Spaghetti Factory location)

What you'll see: The team putting the finishing touches, mechanics, lights, and sounds into the two, 9-hole mini golf course.

You'll see the new location of Denver's beloved streetcar #54,

the musical Red Rocks hole,

an amusement park hole that will look very familiar to Denver dwellers, the DIA hole featuring Blucifer, downtown Denver and the state capitol,

and a delightfully creaking Colorado mine shaft hole, among many others.

Please RSVP to:

Sarah Beatty

PR Contact at M&C Communications | on behalf of Urban Putt

✉ sarah@mandccommunications.com 🐦 @HiJinxVideo

☎ 303-949-2015

ABOUT URBAN PUTT DENVER

Founded in 2014 and located in the heart of the San Francisco Mission District, Urban Putt is the City's premier indoor miniature golf course. A vibrant and unique venue, Urban Putt is an equally perfect destination for a sporting round of mini-golf, family outing, sit-down dinner, company party, special event or drinks with friends. Denver will be Urban Putt's second location.

 urbanputt.com

Newsroom published with Prezly: PR Software