

#EducationNoMatterWhat

Meet Hanan from Syria.

The war in her country meant that she had to flee her home and her school, finding safety in another village.

Now that it's safe to return, the EU is providing catch-up classes so that Hanan's learning will not be disrupted. Hanan has a right to education, no matter what.

Discover
Hanan's story

The EU supports the education of children in emergencies

