January 2023

Prepare your home for a season of new beginnings.

It's time to reset. Lower your pace and slow your breath.

This is the season of new beginnings. Of listening inwards and adjusting your goals and intentions for the upcoming year. A chance to start fresh.

The holiday season has come to an end, and even your armchair seems to relax after a season of carrying both family and friends. Now it's time to reclaim your space. Hide the things you don't need for now and make room for new favourites.

Most of us feel better and less stressed when the home is tidy rather than surrounded by mess. That said, keeping the home organised can sometimes feel like a full-time job.

This season at IKEA, we are happy to introduce new smart storage solutions to make the process less of a hassle. And with new fun designs and fresh, colourful patterns, you can create a harmonious space that energises and revives you.

Goodbye mess. Hello harmony!

Secret storage and favourites on display

Let your living room expand or relax depending on your mood. Visually match and deliberately mismatch using both colours and shapes.

Sprinkle your sofa with new bold prints and pinches of pink with the fun and colourful cushion covers PARKSALLAT and VATTENVÄN. Then make cushions and throws magically disappear inside the spacious built-in storage of the JÄTTEBO modular sofa. Let the decorations in the LINDÅSEN display shelf match the plants on the floor and enhance the colour of the sofa by painting the wall in a similar shade. Illuminate it all with overhead lighting, without the need for a ceiling outlet, with VÅGHÖJD LED floor lamp.

Showcase the things you love on the LINDÅSEN display shelf. The shelf is great for small decorative objects in the living room or hallway or for holding tea tins and spices in the kitchen.

Hide your treasures in style behind HEDEVIKEN doors in oak veneer with visible grains. Mount the doors in different directions for a unique and personal pattern.

With its sleek and sturdy design, VÅGHÖJD LED floor lamp helps you illuminate all the areas you wish to highlight.

“The idea with VÅGHÖJD was to create a LED floor lamp that can go behind a sofa and still reach all the way to a coffee table – without bumping the wall or tipping. You can easily rotate the lamp where you need it – and adjust the intensity with the built-in dimmer.”

Harmonise with colours for a good night's sleep

Remember that feeling of being completely cared for? Of someone predicting your every move, meeting every need. Like being held up by water. No hard edges, just complete harmony.

Find that state again with calming sage green colours that go tone-in-tone and furnishing that meet every need. Dress your bed in a new pattern with ÄNGSNEJLIKA bed linen in a dense percale quality for a cool, crisp, and soft feel. Match with ÄNGSNEJLIKA jacquard-woven terry towels in the bathroom to visually connect the rooms.

Add different tactility in textures with glass lamps and the soft velvet in the SANELA curtains and cushion covers. Then make everything convenient and comfortable by preparing extra towels and sheets in the storage underneath the bed.

Enjoy your stay!

Style expression: Fresh like newly cut grass

This look is inspired by the natural freshness of the season. The green leaves that start out pale and slowly grow darker. Irregular and moving. Soft and natural. Wood, natural fibres, and simple forms combined with monochromatic graphic patterns. Fresh and crisp, just like your plans and ideas for the upcoming year.

Timeless design with a twist

Create a harmonious space free from clutter by combining design that never goes out of style with smart functions. Choose a simple base and dress it up with nice details in natural shapes and materials.

Complement your classic BILLY bookcase with the new BILLY drawer with castors to create the perfect hiding place for things you don't use daily. Continue visually harmonising by clustering your books underneath the coffee table and organising your shelves by colour. And let the irregular form and warm texture of the BLANDSKOG hanging tapestry add an interesting contrast to the room.

Discover a living room with all the necessities without any of the mess.

Connecting and empowering women through crafts

The SMÅFRÖSSÖRT and SANDSENAP cushion covers are not only designed to look and feel good. They are also designed to create job opportunities for those who need them most.

In response to the Syrian crisis in 2017, IKEA Social Entrepreneurship partnered with the Jordan River Foundation (JRF). The aim was to empower refugee women and support better integration into Jordanian society through handicrafts like sewing and embroidery.

To follow up and see how the work had gone so far, JRF made a social impact assessment in 2021. The result showed that 95% of the artisans in the project had improved their perception of other community members, and 76% had made new friends. By being able to sustain themselves, the women had also improved their overall quality of life and increased their confidence.

Though bold and graphic in their design, the SMÅFRÖSSÖRT and SANDSENAP cushion covers match most styles with their monochrome colour palette. And the handmade stitching on top of the print gives every cushion cover a unique touch.

Jump-start the season

Let nature in before the buds have even awakened outside. Choose sustainable products and handcrafted items in natural materials to leave the faintest of footprints.

Allow the plants to grow in pots on the floor and on the bed with KLÄTTERKALLA duvet cover and pillowcase. Let the dots from the bed linen spread to the walls and the REGOLIT pendant lampshade. A green thread moves through the furniture, and VATTENKAR wall storage easily blends in to harmonise and declutter the room.

Creating new jobs for villagers in the Golden Triangle

The SAGOGRYN plant pots are made in collaboration with the Doi Tung Development Project in Thailand. Doi Tung DP is a social enterprise that has transformed thousands of lives for people in the once opium-growing region known as the Golden Triangle. From opium cultivation, trafficking, and stripped mountains – the local hill tribe people have been able to switch to honest, stable incomes and lush green forests. Today more than 1 700 households in 29 villages have a better and safer economic situation thanks to the initiative.

The partnership with IKEA started in 2007 and has resulted in a bounty of unique, handmade products sold in IKEA stores worldwide – products that create jobs for villagers in northern Thailand with few other choices for earning a living.

PH189423.JPG

The SAGOGRYN plant pots are handmade with a layer of glaze that deepens the colour and enhances the pattern, giving each plant pot a unique expression.

“We only glaze part of the SAGOGRYN plant pot to highlight the raw characteristic of the ceramic. I hope that you, like me, are proud that the production helps give vulnerable people the opportunity to earn a living.”
