About Second Impact Games

Second Impact Games was founded in 2011 by two young programmers who dreamed of making their own games for the world to enjoy. In the wonderful city of Brighton, we've worked hard for over 10 years on all manner of projects. We've helped other studios bring ideas to life and hit deadlines. We've worked with marketing agencies to add interactive magic to their campaigns. We've even partnered with big name brands, creating games and apps they can show off to their consumers. And all the while we kept the threads of our own games alive. Fusing genres, spanning dimensions, and tugging nostalgia.

Second Impact were also responsible for the hit Flash series Super Crazy Guitar Maniac Deluxe, played many millions of times in the glory days of Flash games. The spirit of SCGMD lives on today, in Super Crazy Rhythm Castle.
