PRESS RELEASE

Arla Foods Ingredients and Alchemy Agencies sign new distribution agreement

Arla Foods Ingredients and Alchemy Agencies have announced a new distribution partnership to serve the performance nutrition market in Australia, New Zealand and the Pacific Islands.

Effective immediately, the distribution agreement will primarily focus on Australia and New Zealand (ANZ). It supports Arla Foods Ingredients' strategy to expand sales in Southeast Asia and in ANZ/Oceania, where Alchemy Agencies is a leading distributor of speciality food and beverage ingredients.

The new agreement covers five key brands in Arla Foods Ingredients' range of premium performance nutrition ingredients:

- Lacprodan[®] whey protein isolate, which contains at least 90% protein and offers solutions for ready-to-drink (RTD) sports beverages, gels, powder shakes and protein bars
- Capolac[®], a milk mineral concentrate rich in highly bioavailable calcium, magnesium and phosphorus, with benefits for muscle function, healthy bones and body composition
- MicelPure[®], a micellar casein isolate containing 86% native protein and naturally high in calcium for sports nutrition RTD beverages and shakes
- Nutrilac[®] PB-8420, a high-quality whey and milk protein ingredient that ensures soft texture, processability and robustness for the outer mass of sports protein bars
- Nutrilac[®] MFGM, which is rich in high-quality whey protein and the complex lipids present in milk fat globule membrane to support physical performance and strength

The ANZ region has the second highest per capita global spend on sports nutrition products, including bars, drinks and powder shakes, and Australia is the world's third largest sports nutrition market.¹

Alexander Leufgen, Head of Asia-Pacific at Arla Foods Ingredients, said: "Arla Foods Ingredients is delighted to welcome Alchemy Agencies as a distribution partner. The new agreement for ANZ/Oceania is an excellent fit for our performance nutrition solutions in this dynamic market. Crucially, it will play a key role in supporting our ambitions in Asia-Pacific and ensuring our focus on customer centricity and service."
