

PRESS RELEASE

REPA to showcase QSR spare parts solutions at 2025 Burger King Convention

Bergkirchen, June 3, 2025

REPA, the leading European spare parts distributor for foodservice and refrigeration equipment, coffee and vending machines, is set to exhibit at the 2025 Burger King International Convention taking place in Lisbon this June (10th-11th).

REPA's team of experts will present the spare parts solutions to Burger King Franchisees from across the globe.

Burger King's QSR model relies upon equipment that can stand up to the demands of a fast-paced environment, where every second counts. REPA and its parent company Parts Town Unlimited have strong dual expertise in OEM parts management, unrivalled stock levels and class-leading technical support, backed by a global network of state-of-the-art fulfillment centers. QSR can rely on this dynamic duo to get them back on their feet and running smoothly, should the worst happen.

Boasting long-standing partnerships with leading OEMs and famous QSR chains, REPA and Parts Town are already a key reference point for spares and smallware supply across the world.

OEMs and QSR know they can count on the REPA quick and easy eCommerce platform to make parts identification and ordering completely seamless for several brands such as 3M, Antunes, Carpigiani, Cornelius, Frymaster, Garland, H&K, Lancer, Manitowoc Ice, Multiplex, Prince Castle, True, Winterhalter, just to name a few.

Matthias Goettler, Group Director QSR & Global Accounts for REPA, comments: "We're thrilled to be attending the 2025 Burger King International Convention with the opportunity to showcase our comprehensive spare parts offerings and solutions. Our commitment to supporting Burger King and other QSRs with high-quality, original spare parts remains our top priority and is what sets us apart in the marketplace. We look forward to meeting Burger King Franchisees and demonstrating why we really are the choice of food and drink royalty!"
