

THE ESSENCE OF MOMENTUM IN A TRULY WIRELESS FORM

Sennheiser introduces MOMENTUM True Wireless

Berlin, August 30, 2018 – Sennheiser’s iconic MOMENTUM range of headphones continues to change the game through its fusion of advanced technology, uncompromised sound performance and the highest quality materials. The audio specialist is now bringing the MOMENTUM ethos to an exceptional new product, the MOMENTUM True Wireless: these exquisitely crafted Bluetooth earphones set new standards for audio quality, with characteristic MOMENTUM style and comfort.

The new benchmark in true wireless audio

Featuring Sennheiser’s audiophile 7mm dynamic drivers, the sound quality of MOMENTUM True Wireless is a world apart.

Experience music in style

Beautifully finished with metallic details on the outer face and supplied with a fabric-wrapped compact case, MOMENTUM True Wireless offers a sense of timeless elegance and durability. The earphones are splash- and sweat-resistant and offer all-day wearing comfort.

Sense your world

The Transparent Hearing feature gives you the option of blending ambient sounds into your listening experience for improved situational awareness, or to participate in conversations without removing the earphones.

Use your headphones all day long

The MOMENTUM True Wireless has a 4-hour battery life that can be recharged via its compact case with integrated power bank for more than 12 hours of listening enjoyment.

A smart, connected wireless experience

Enjoy direct access to smart assistants such as Apple Siri or Google Assistant. Be entertained, communicate, and stay informed - via a simple tap of the intuitive touch interface and natural voice commands.

MOMENTUM True Wireless will be available from mid-November for 299 EUR (MSRP).
