New Year Celebrations at L'oscar London

This New Year's Eve, the Baptist Church will be the backdrop for a glamorous cabaret performance with the theme "Birds of a Feather," inspired by the hotel's interiors. Designed by renowned French interior designer Jacques Garcia, L'oscar London draws its unique aesthetic from a theme of birds and wings. Fittingly, this year's show is an homage to these elements, brought to life through cabaret and burlesque performances. Guests will be treated to eight performances, including acts such as The Foot Juggler, Neo Ballet, Hand Balance Artist, and Burlesque. Upon arrival, guests be greeted by a life-sized, gilded birdcage at the centre of the room, setting the stage for a surprise performance. The evening will include a four-course menu featuring crispy rice & Scottish lobster, Japanese wagyu tartar, roasted barbery duck breast, and milk chocolate delice. It's the perfect occasion to dress to impress—think red carpet chic with a touch of feathers. At L'oscar, we embrace all forms of wings, big or small, and encourage guests to do the same. Tickets are priced at £345 per person and includes Champagne on arrival, amuse bouche, four-course menu, Champagne at midnight and live performances.

About the Performers:
