YOU make the difference with Mutual Respect

Sidi Larbi Cherkaoui Choreographer – Eastman – Sandler's Wells – UnitedHumans Award 2014
An encounter that gives me hope in the future!

Marleen Temmerman Director at WHO World Health Organization

Mutual respect and equality are essential values in society. The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1948) recognizes the inherent dignity as the foundation of freedom, justice and peace in the world. Great that, also in Flanders, people are promoting values ...

Paul De Knop Rector Vrije Universiteit Brussel – VUB – 2008 -

We often think in structures, but ... everything is about people. Diversity is an opportunity, but it is all too often seen as a problem! So let's get to know, appreciate each other ...

Patrick De Maeseneire CEO Adecco

yoUnite(d) Humans.

It starts with you and me !

Raymonda Verdyck Managing Director GO! Education of the Flemish Community

Having an open mind, without prejudice and interested in everyone's opinion are fundamental values that bind people together and contribute to a warm society. These are the values that are the foundation of the educational project of the GO! We offer them as attitudes to life to all our students.

Jacques Rogge 8th President of the International Olympic Committee 2001-2013

Excellence, respect and friendship are the values that the athletes live in the Olympic village.

These values also have their place in everyday life.

Paul Van Gysegem Royal Flemish Academy of Belgium for Sciences and Arts

By choosing for friendship for each other, instead of hate, Gilgamesh and Enkidu were doing a heroic act. They show us the way to a new society with mutual respect and social justice ...

Marc de Bel Author

In the seed is already the flower, if you hug it you find the power. BOOM!

Freddy Thielemans Mayor of Brussels 2001-2013

With my deepest thanks for a campaign that really appeals to me.

Indeed, we need to continue to work on the fact that humanity is one and indivisible.

Hence "United Humans" should be our motto. High courage and see you soon.

An Nelissen Actress
I believe in people !

Sihame El Kaouakibi Founder/Director @LetsGoUrban, CEO A Woman's View
More than ever, our spirit is crying for values such as mutual respect and equality. More than ever, we must invest TOGETHER in the FORCE of people. This is the only way to achieve and to discover the POWER of the difference.

Maxime De Winne Actor CirQ - a collective of young, socially committed people
People can not live without EACH OTHER. As a musical note can not be without the other. They complement each other.
Make up your mind ! Viva the three pillars of United Humans.

Alain Verschoren Rector Universiteit Antwerpen - UA Antwerpen
Respect and friendship, even at world level, are not abstract concepts. It starts with you and me.

Leo Bormans Ambassador of Happiness & Quality of Life
What if we resolutely replace the culture of FEAR by a culture of HOPE, connection and authentic curiosity ?
It's time to do it .

Kurt Defrancq Books Productions Cabaret Theater and much more.
For many people reflecting ... merely means rearranging their prejudices ...

Karel De Gucht Minister of State 2002 – Member of the Crown Council of Belgium
People want to show solidarity. It is their greatest source of joy, but also their Achilles heel.

Bert Popelier Cultural journalist and poet
An absolute point of view holds until new insights emerge.
There are the circumstances.

Michel Bauwens P2P foundation
"Peer to Peer" does not mean that we are all the same, it rather means that each of us has a similar potential to contribute to the common good !
Each of us can contribute a fragment to united humanity!

Ludo Poelaert Lecturer UGent
Mutual respect for others helps to understand them better. This could be the start of living together in dignity. In this way we are building a caring society full of hope.

Luc Bontemps Managing Director FEBIAC
Live your truth ! Feel and listen to your heart. Be thankful to be together !
Don't judge nor condemn but share ! Give ... give never up ! Be yourself, BE !
Tous pour un, un pour tous !

Cocojr. Een notoir podiumbeest, een top-entertainer. Een altijd enthousiast en overtuigend zanger/rapper
MAXIMUM RESPECT

Paula Sémer radio and television pioneer with social commitment

Living long is easy, that is simple.

Living meaningful with attention to other people. That is another story !

Marouane Fellaini Belgian football player, Red Devils, committed

Professional and passionate football requires rules and dedication like a "HEALTHY" society needs mutual respect and individual involvement.

Paul Van Hoeydonck Artist with survival instinct. Man on the moon - The Fallen Astronaut

Love for the planet and for the universal life are my hope in progress.

Universality and inclusivity need Mutual Respect and Love to thrive well!

To open the way to the stars is the most important mission of men in this century.

Koen Vanmechelen Artist, Cosmopolitan Chicken, CosmoGolem, The Walking egg, Open University of Diversity

Belief in a world of global diversity which to me equals to global solidarity !

Johan Verminnen Songwriter and singer

Respect and friendship are the most important values in my life.

Olivier Vanden Eynde Founder/Managing Director Close the Gap

Day by day it comes to making the difference

Or as Desmond Tutu says : "Practice what you preach"

André Flahaut Minister of State 2009 – Member of the Crown Council of Belgium

Mutual respect means to take the other one into consideration.

This also means that we adopt a civil and friendly behavior in our social relations.

In this regard, I request since 1998, the introduction of citizenship classes where democratic and brotherhood values are taught to young people from their early age, so that they discover the benefits of tolerance and of the acceptance of differences.

Dave Sinardet Political scientist, columnist

The real political art is not to divide people, but to unite people !

Marc Sleen Cartoonist, Father of Nero, Great passion for nature

Mutual respect between people is very important ...

... but the environment deserves at least as much respect !

Let us cherish biodiversity.

Let us build a future in which humans live in harmony with nature.

Let us think about our use of the earth, we only have one earth and she has to be in good condition for further generations !

Jean Paul Van Bendegem Prof. Dr. Mathematician Philosopher of science

As a professor at university, I have the privilege to help forming future generations.
Therefore I dare to call myself "human" amongst all the other "humans".

Luc De Schepper Rector Universiteit Hasselt - UHasselt

A truly good university does not only provide students with knowledge, but also teaches them to stay clear of bias, prejudice and hasty conclusions. In that way, they can step into the world with an open mind, which is a prerequisite for respect for other ...

Anne De Paepe Rector Universiteit Gent - UGent

In line with the motto of our university, I want to say :
Dare to dialogue, Dare to listen but in mutual respect for each other ...
as this is an essential prerequisite for any good society !

Piet Blanckaert Landscape architect - 'Flanders Fields 1914-2014' Memorial Garden
Seeking harmony.

Willem Elias Royal Flemish Academy of Belgium for Sciences and Arts

Our identity becomes alive through the freedom to be different than the others.
Etymologically, respect means 'looking towards' the others.
I am pleased that the UnitedHUMans spirit radiates perspectivism : the world is the way you look at it.

Sabine de Bethune Chairman of the Belgian Senate

Going for a warm society. Politics based on solidarity making people stronger !

Michael Van Peel Comedian : funny cynic, trapped in the body of an acute optimist. Revolution !

"If you ever start taking things too seriously, just remember that we are talking monkeys on an organic spaceship, flying through the universe "
(Joe Rogan)

Goeie reis ! Have a good trip !

Damien Jalet Choreographer – UnitedHumans Award 2014

Let's walk the long walk towards a place with more empathy, less superficial judgments and self centrisim, ...
and consider the other more like a treat than a threat.
